MODI KINDLES TEAM INDIA SPIRIT

West Asia situation dynamic, needs constant monitoring to evolve adaptive strategies: PM

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Friday sought to kindle the spirit of Team India in the wake of the West Asia flare-up, in a virtual meeting with chief ministers of all states and Union territories except those facing polls. The Centre and the states should work harmoniously to ensure economic and trade stability, energy security, strengthen industry and supply chains, as also safeguard citizens' interests, as they did during the Covid pandemic, he said.

Modi emphasised the need for advance planning in the agriculture sector, particularly in monitoring fertiliser storage and distribution. "There is the need for robust coordination mechanisms at all levels to enable quick response to evolving situations," the PM said.

Placing special emphasis on border and coastal states, he highlighted the need to address emerging challenges related to shipping, essential supplies and maritime operations. Modi advised all participants to be on alert and cautioned against the spread of misinformation and rumours, underlining the importance of sharing accurate and credible information. He also urged the CMs to take strict action against hoarding and profiteering.

Referring to the situation in West Asia, the PM observed that India has prior experience in handling similar global disruptions. He recalled the collective response during the Covid pandemic, when the Centre and states worked together as Team India to mitigate impacts on supply chains, trade, and daily life. The same spirit of cooperation remains India's greatest strength in navigating the current circumstances, he said.

The present situation, he added, is dynamic and requires continuous monitoring and adaptive strategies. Modi informed the participants that an Inter-Ministerial Group has been operational since March 3, reviewing developments daily and taking timely decisions.

Highlighting the critical role of states, the PM noted that effective implementation occurs at the state level. He called for constant communication and coordination between the Centre and states, along with timely information sharing and joint decision-making to ensure swift and well-aligned responses.

Excise duty on petrol, diesel cut

DAY 28 | WAR WATCH

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

AMID energy supply disruptions due to the Iran war, the Centre on Friday announced a ₹10 cut in central excise duty on petrol and diesel for domestic consumption and slapped fresh export levies on key petroleum products to ensure domestic availability.

According to the Petroleum Planning and Analysis Cell, the special additional excise duty was ₹10 per litre on diesel and ₹13 per litre on petrol. So, the ₹10 cut brings down the special duty petrol to ₹3 and diesel to zero. However, the duty cuts are unlikely to lower retail prices of petrol and diesel as the move is to ease the burden of oil marketing companies (OMCs), which have been absorbing the rise in global crude prices.

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman said the excise duty cut would shield consumers from rising fuel prices.

Brent crude prices have surged sharply since the conflict escalated, rising from $65-70 per barrel to a peak of $119—an increase of 75%. As of Saturday 12.30 am, the price stood at $112.50 per barrel.

Petroleum Minister Hardeep Singh Puri said the government has taken a substantial hit to its tax revenues to offset losses borne by OMCs. After the duty cut, the government is likely to incur a revenue loss of ₹5,500 crore every fortnight.

The finance ministry also imposed export duties on diesel at ₹21.5 per litre and on aviation turbine fuel at ₹29.5 per litre to discourage outbound shipments and prioritise domestic usage.

Haryana ticket-for-cash FIR hits Cong biggies

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Delhi Police has registered a first information report (FIR) in connection with an alleged ticket-for-money case against important leaders of the Congress.

It was alleged in the complaint that the money was demanded on the pretext of securing an election ticket in Haryana Assembly election in 2024. Media reports alleged that the case stems from a complaint filed by Suchitra, former general secretary of Haryana Mahila Congress. The FIR was lodged after Suchitra and her husband Gaurav appeared before investigators with their complaint where they claim that they paid as much as ₹7 crore to secure a party ticket for Suchitra.

Among those named in the complaint were Congress General Secretary K C Venugopal, MP K Suresh and Priyanka Gandhi-Vadra's aide Shahab Khan, the reports said. Coming as it does ahead of the Kerala polls, the allegation could have a bearing in the state.

The amount was reportedly given through multiple transactions, including bank transfers and cash payments. However, it was alleged that neither a ticket was provided nor was the money returned.

While speaking with media persons, the complainant said he has provided all details to the Delhi Police.

He also mentioned that while he was going to Delhi to protest, police stopped his vehicle and assured that all necessary action would be taken to address their grievances.

The complaint was filed earlier this month. The police said that all facts and evidence were being thoroughly examined.

East, Central City corpns present surplus budgets

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

AFTER dissolution of the erstwhile BBMP and formation of Greater Bengaluru Authority (GBA) with five city corporations, Bengaluru East City Corporation (BECC) and Bengaluru Central City Corporation (BCCC) presented their maiden budgets with a total outlay of ₹7,315 crore (₹3,889.98 crore for East and ₹3,426 crore for Central) for 2026-2027 on Friday. The corporations presented a surplus budget -- BCCC's was surplus by ₹78.65lakh, and BECC's ₹1.56lakh. Both said they would establish a dedicated Urban Design Cell for the first time, comprising an urban transport expert, an urban designer and an urban planner, marking a shift in road design, upgradation, and implementation of traffic systems. Both the corporations reserved ₹2.25 crore for each ward, as against a demand of ₹5 crore from the city legislators.

While BECC has set a revenue tax collection target of ₹1,500 crore, BCCC aims to collect ₹1,150 crore, indicating that the Corporations are relying more on their own revenue than government grants. Through municipal bonds, both corporations aim to generate ₹200 crore each. FULL COVERAGE: P4

IPL bonanza for MLAs: Free tickets, VIP stand

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN a swift move, Karnataka legislators have secured free tickets and a reserved VIP stand at M Chinnaswamy Stadium in Bengaluru for the upcoming Indian Premier League (IPL) matches.

The MLAs will be getting two tickets for Saturday's inaugural match and three tickets will be issued for the April 5 clash.

The decision came within 24 hours of demands raised in the Assembly on the final day of the Budget session.

The Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA) President Venkatesh Prasad on Friday visited Vidhana Soudha to invite Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar for the inaugural match.

Supporting the legislators' demand, Shivakumar said legislators are part of the government and respect has to be given to them. He also said they have given permission to host matches amidst pressure. P6

STAMPEDE & AFTER

Refurbished Chinnaswamy Stadium ready for IPL

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Bengaluru

WHEN is a game more than just a game? The one at the M Chinnaswamy Stadium on Saturday evening is one that has a lot riding on it. Sure, 40 overs separate two points from the holders, Royal Challengers Bengaluru, or 2024 finalists, Sunrisers Hyderabad. But it doesn't seem right to view the opener to the Indian Premier League's (IPL) 19th edition through the conventional prism of batters, bowlers, boundaries and team news. That feeling was reestablished after spending less than 30 minutes inside the city's largest sporting arena. There was ongoing developmental work and infrastructure was either coming up or existing infra was being upgraded.

To supplement new changes, almost all of it to enhance safety and security measures following last June's stampede outside the Stadium gates, some 400-450 AI cameras were in place. Any small inconvenience and the cameras will alert authorities. Blinking neon light warning systems are a go. The paying public — most of whom were subjected to ticket checks and long queues outside the Stadium — would now be brought inside before ticket verification. The tragedy which claimed 11 lives in June 2025 jolted the establishment. Since that awful day, RCB, the Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA) and other stakeholders have taken baby steps towards bringing cricket back in some way, shape or form to this historic venue.

Domestic games without crowds. A statement there. A permanent plaque. A tribute in a press conference. A message online. Something to remember the victims by. On Saturday, the rapid work put in place by the association will finally see the light of day. After being enveloped by grief for months, the city will have the chance to rise as one to remember the departed souls.

East's agenda: Better roads to drive growth

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

BENGALURU East City Corporation (BECC) on Friday presented its maiden budget with a total outlay of Rs 3,889.98 crore for the financial year 2026-2027. Major budget proposals include grade separator on Outer Ring Road (ORR) at Rs 50 crore generated through municipal bonds, comprehensive development of roads at Rs 40 crore and veterinary clinics and mobile veterinary vehicles.

BECC Commissioner DS Ramesh, who presented the budget on Friday, stated that, 4.50 lakh property Khatas have been digitized and hopes to get a revenue of Rs 1,500 crore, indicating that it is leaning more on its own revenue than funds from the state and central governments.

The Commissioner said that each of the 50 wards under the Corporation will be given Rs 2.25 crore for ward development, totalling Rs 112.50 crore.

Ramesh said Rs 982 crore is expected in the form of fees from building plan approval, 5% premium Floor Area Ratio fee from park and open space in single-site plan approval and occupancy certificates (OC).

The commissioner mentioned that a GIS-based property tax system is being integrated with agencies like BESCOM and BWSSB. "Through property tax reforms, an additional revenue of Rs 150 crore is expected," he stated. AI technology will be used to identify tax defaulters, and through data integration, the tax network will be expanded, with a target of generating an additional Rs 100 crore annually. The budget expects Rs 225 crore from conversion of B-Khatas to A-Khatas and Rs 139 crore from the single-plot approval system for vacant sites.

To ease congestion on ORR's Alpine Eco Road, Rs 50 crore from municipal bonds would be used to construct a grade separator. Rs 20 crore has been allocated for development of public places in BECC. "The corporation will spend Rs 25 crore on the construction of a railway overbridge and underbridge and Rs 25 crore for the construction of a new Corporation Head Office for East", he said.

The commissioner said, "A project worth Rs 450 crore has been evolved by the government in order to construct a durable Outer Ring Road from Silk Board Junction to KR Puram, and the work will be taken up during the current financial year. Rs. 50 crore has been earmarked for redesign and comprehensive development of high-traffic junctions and building skywalks to make such junction as pedestrian-friendly within the Bengaluru East City Corporation."

For the construction of 15 new primary health centres, 10 Namma Clinics, upgradation of existing primary health centres, vaccination for the public and annual maintenance of Indira Canteens an amount of Rs 50.86 crore has been allocated.

The corporation has allocated Rs 227 crore for capital works in places where SC/ST, Minorities, Backward communities are located. The funds will also be earmarked for the educational empowerment of Tribal, Pourakarmika and the downtrodden communities.

BCCC's big spend on public health

The BCCC budget allocated nearly Rs 70 crore towards public health. "Under the Brand Bengaluru – Healthy Bengaluru initiative, we have allocated Rs 40 crore to upgrade seven maternity hospitals into 30-bed FRU (First Referral Unit) Community Health Centres, and one hospital into a 50-bed FRU UCHC (Urban Community Health Centre) center, fully compliant with IPHS standards. These will feature modern modular operating theatres, high-tech labs, and specialist doctors," Vijayalakshmi said.

Urban Design Cell a welcome move, but keep politicians at bay: Experts

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

THE budgets for the Bengaluru East City Corporation (BECC) and Bengaluru Central City Corporation (BCCC) individually announced the setting up of an Urban Design Cell, comprising an urban planner, a transport expert and an urban designer, with BECC setting aside Rs 50 lakh towards it. While the Corporations claimed that this marks a paradigm shift in how we design, upgrade, and build roads, public spaces, and traffic systems in Bengaluru, urban experts opined that they should be functioning independently without any political interference.

Mobility expert from the Indian Institute of Science (IISc), Prof Ashish Verma, welcoming the urban design cell, said, "The cells must be free and fair in functioning. If the focus of the cell is on road infrastructure like tunnel road, double-decker flyover and flyovers, then the very purpose of the cell is defeated. If it is influenced by political bosses, we will just be going back to square one and achieving nothing".

He said that Bengaluru has enough data-driven projects and scientific evidence in urban planning and they were just ignored because of political interference.

Joining him, civic activist and convener, Citizens' Agenda for Bengaluru, Sandeep Anirudhan said, "Bengaluru's greatest crisis is unplanned development, which has steadily eroded its liveability. This stems from a lack of institutional planning capacity. There is no functional Metropolitan Planning Committee (MPC), and the city lacks adequate urban planners, transport planners, and regional planners, as well as urban designers. A city of this scale requires hundreds of such professionals, not just to plan, but also to oversee implementation. Yet, beyond a token mention of an Urban Design Cell, there is no serious vision or commitment to building this capacity."

He said, "Technology initiatives to make services transparent and interconnected are a welcome step forward. However, the budget fails to address the city's most fundamental challenges."

Any financial plan that fails to incorporate inputs from residents at the Area Sabha and ward levels fails to reflect the real needs and priorities of Bengaluru. The current budget has been designed by a small group of officials with little to no genuine consultation with the public. BNP raises serious concerns about the complete lack of decentralised participation in this process.

Cabbie charred to death as lorry rams parked car

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A 23-year-old cab driver was burnt alive when a 16-wheeler steel-laden lorry rammed into his vehicle in which he was sleeping in the early hours of Friday. The lorry driver lost control on the sloped road and dragged the cab for almost 100 feet into an open scrapyard where the car's CNG ignited causing a massive fire. The lorry and scrap yard was also completely gutted.

The deceased has been identified as Ambadas, a resident of Kurubarahalli and hailing from Kalaburagi. The incident happened around 1.20 am. Since the victim had a pick-up to the airport, he had parked the car on the Pipelane in Kurubarahalli and had dozed off. "The lorry had come from Andhra Pradesh to deliver steel to a godown in Sunkadakatte. Since the driver, identified as Deepak Yadav, was not aware of the area, he was reportedly following the directions shown on Google Maps. As the 20-foot-wide road was sloped, the lorry driver lost control and rammed into the cab. When the vehicles caught fire, the lorry driver jumped inside a stormwater drain and sustained minor injuries. Four fire tenders were pressed into service," said an officer.

Day after prof's arrest, college gets bomb threat mail

Bengaluru: A day after Sri Siddhartha Institute of Medical Sciences and Research Centre in T Begur of Nelamangala taluk was in news after a video of its Assistant Professor Dr Abdul Rehaman Sharif proposing to a student in the classroom went viral, the college received a bomb threat email on Friday. The mail, sent to the official mail ID of the college principal and others, stated that "for the insult of our brother Dr Abdul, 15 cyanide gas filled IEDs have been planted in the college campus to blast at 2 pm Holy Friday. Evacuate all students." However, the threat was declared a hoax after search operations. The threat mail was sent by a person identifying himself as Dr Sourav Khan from an ID -- sourav_biswas21@hotmail.com -- at 2.47 am on Friday. "Due to the recent insult to Dr Abdul M on campus the Tek-Kashmir cells have taken notice and have decided to mark the college campus well with the blasts. 15 cyanide dosed IEDs will blast on campus at 2 pm sharp after afternoon Islamic prayers. We only want property damage, so please evacuate all students from campus. We used mini drones to place the IEDs, please let the buildings go, clear students (sic)," the email read. A thorough check by the police, Bomb Detection and Disposal Squad (BDDS), dog squad and anti-sabotage teams did not find any explosives on the college premises. The Nelamangala Rural police have registered a case. ENS

AT VICTORIA HOSPITAL

Lokayukta team finds expired meds, lack of ventilator beds

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

ON a surprise visit to Victoria Hospital, a team constituted by the Karnataka Lokayukta found expired medicines in the ICU of the Trauma Care Centre, and an emergency patient being declined admission on the ground that no beds were available, though there were six vacant beds in the ICU. The team was constituted to look into the issue of private ambulances operating in the hospital premises, exploiting patients and luring them to private hospitals.

However, Special Officer Dr Asima Banu, in-charge of the Trauma Centre, informed Lokayukta Justice BS Patil that six beds were not ready for ICU admission as the ventilators were not working. Construing that six beds were kept unutilised on account of negligence and delay in attending to ventilators, assuming the statement is correct, Justice Patil on Friday stated that the matter regards the use of expired drugs in the ICU.

"There are several other lacunae pointed out by the investigation team. The report is ordered to be communicated to all respondents, including the Chief Secretary, Additional Chief Secretary, Director of Medical Education and other officials who are in charge of different branches in the hospital, including trauma centre," the Lokayukta stated, posting the matter for hearing to April 27.

Private ambulance drivers and middlemen engaged by them were roaming the hospital premises, meeting doctors and asking them to send patients to be shifted to private hospitals in their ambulances. It was also alleged that some of the hospital staff were insisting that attendants can use a private ambulance.

The Lokayukta stated that the state government has to step in and give clearance for regulating private ambulances by arranging prepaid ambulance service, as required by the dean of the hospital. In view of this, the Additional Chief Secretary and Director of Medical Education have been called upon to appraise the action taken and address maladministration, he stated.

Assault on doctors

Meanwhile, Dr Asima stated there is a shortage of beds. Hence, the middlemen and persons in charge of private ambulances exploit the patients brought to the hospital. The problems created by them were uncontrollable, and there were even instances when doctors and hospital officials in-charge were assaulted. Already, complaints were given to the police, she told Lokayukta.

No complaints filed

However, DCP, Bengaluru South, informed Lokayukta that no complaints were filed against any particular ambulance driver or middleman. The Lokayukta instructed him to conduct an inspection, and instruct the police outpost on the hospital premises to ensure the miscreants are identified, and disorder and nuisance created by the intrusion of ambulance drivers and middlemen are dealt with and handled effectively.

Lambo plate fake, 2nd FIR against Ricky Rai

Bengaluru: A second FIR has been registered against Ricky Rai, son of don-turned-social activist late Muthappa Rai, in connection with the Lamborghini car drifting incident. The Cubbon Park traffic police had registered the first FIR for rash and negligent driving on a public way. The second FIR has been registered by the Cubbon Park Law and Order police over alleged tax evasion. Ricky is said to have used the fancy registration number (KA-05-NR-0009) despite the number not being officially allotted by the Transport Department to any vehicle. It was found that Ricky had purchased a Lamborghini Huracan bearing original number DL-1 -CT-1515 from a Gujarat-based person. "Ricky, without properly transferring the vehicle to Karnataka, had illegally affixed KA-05-NR-0009 number despite not being officially registered to any vehicle. It was found that Ricky knowingly installed KA-05-NR-0009 number to mislead enforcement authorities," said an officer. ENS

Mandya district emerges hub of communal clashes, witnesses 34 of 70 cases in K'taka

Entry of communal politics in recent years into rural pockets has led to growing social and religious polarisation

BK LAKSHMIKANTHA @Mysuru

MANDYA, the sugar bowl of Karnataka, is witnessing an erosion of its long-standing tradition of communal harmony.

Of the 70 cases registered across the state in connection with communal clashes, including those during the Ganesh festival, 34 cases (48.57%) were reported from Mandya district. The data was a reply to a question asked by MLC Madhu G Madegowda in the Council to Home Minister Dr G Parameshwara in the recent legislature session.

Traditionally an agrarian region, Mandya has been known for peaceful coexistence, with people from different religions working together in agriculture. However, in recent years, the entry of communal politics into rural pockets has led to growing social and religious polarisation, resulting in clashes between groups.

The annual Sankeertana Yatra organised by Hindu groups in Srirangapatna tend to be a flash point. The hoisting of a Hanuman flag in Keragodu village had triggered widespread unrest across the district.

The situation deteriorated with communal clashes in Nagamangala taluk during a Ganesha procession, followed by incidents of stone-pelting and violence during a Ganesh idol procession in Maddur taluk. These incidents intensified tensions district-wide. In 2024, a total of 24 cases were registered in Nagamangala, while Maddur police registered 10 cases in 2025.

In response to the rising number of communal incidents, a Special Action Force (SAF) has been constituted in Mandya district. According to a senior police officer, the SAF was established following an order issued on May 28, 2025, as part of a broader state-level initiative.

In connection with the communal violence during the Ganesh procession in Nagamangala town, several police personnel - including DySP Dr. Sumit A R, Police Inspector Ashok Kumar, PSI Ravi BJ, and Head Constable M Ramesh - have been suspended, and a joint departmental inquiry has been initiated against them.

Similarly, Shivakumar, Police Inspector of Maddur Police Station, has been suspended for negligence in handling the Ganesh procession held on September 8, 2025. A departmental inquiry has also been ordered against him.

At the state level, the SAF has been headquartered in Mangaluru, with three companies set up in Udupi, Shivamogga, and Dakshina Kannada districts on June 11, 2025. Subsequently, one company was established in Mandya district. The SAF units operate under the leadership of an officer of Deputy Inspector General (DIG) rank.

"Under the Special Action Force, an intelligence unit equipped with a technical cell has been formed to monitor media, social media, and other intelligence inputs for hate speech and inflammatory content. Surveillance systems, along with human intelligence, have been strengthened to provide early warnings of potential communal unrest. Confidence-building measures, including area domination, are being undertaken, while efforts are also on to identify and monitor radicalisation. Zonal IGPs are deploying SAF personnel in sensitive situations, ensuring swift and priority action against incidents of communal violence," the officer said.

D'GERE SOUTH BYPOLL

Relief for Cong as 'rebel' Sadiq Pailwan withdraws

G SUBHASH CHANDRA, DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @Chitradurga, Bengaluru

WITH Congress rebel candidate Sadiq Pailwan declaring on Friday that he is pulling out of the bypoll to the Davanagere South Assembly constituency, where the election is scheduled for April 9, the Grand Old Party had a sense of relief. He decided to withdraw after meeting Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar in Bengaluru on Friday.

"I am the son of the Congress family. By withdrawing as a rebel candidate, I will work for Congress as BJP should not win for any reason," he said. He indicated that he will work for the party's official candidate and grandson of late Shamanur Shivashankarappa, Samarth Shamanur, son of Horticulture Minister SS Mallikarjun.

With All-India Congress Committee (AICC) General Secretary (Karnataka in-charge) Randeep Singh Surjewala in town, both Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar put in a lot of effort to quell the rebellion. Housing Minister Zameer Ahmed Khan and CM's political secretary and MLC Nazir Ahmed had refused to be Siddaramaiah's emissaries to convince Sadiq, fearing the ire of religious heads of minorities. Instead, Council chief whip Saleem Ahmed and Shivajinagar MLA Rizwan Arshad stepped in. They flew to Chitradurga in a helicopter on Thursday and reached Davanagere by road, but could not get in touch with Sadiq. They met him in the evening and also spoke to his family members. The two party representatives reportedly told Sadiq that if BJP manages to win, his family has to take the blame.

Salim and Arshad took Sadiq to Siddaramaiah where a one-on-one meeting was held and Sadiq agreed to withdraw, sources said.

Siddaramaiah said, "Sadiq Pailwan has been in Congress for about 40 years and he is a staunch loyalist of the party. There are 70,000 Muslim voters in Davanagere South and there were many ticket aspirants. But the high command, as per the practice of giving tickets to the families of the deceased, fielded Samarth."

"Sadiq said he will not betray the party and will remain a Congressman. The party respects his determination, discipline and sacrifice," said DK Shivakumar.

BJP, united in House for free IPL tickets, but divided over political propriety

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

KARNATAKA BJP president BY Vijayendra on Friday firmly opposed MLAs demanding free IPL tickets, asserting that legislators must not seek special privileges that distance them from citizens.

"We legislators are not bigger or different from the common man. We should not be asking for special privileges. I am opposed to this idea of legislators asking IPL tickets," Vijayendra said. He tied the controversy to last year's stampede during RCB's victory celebrations outside the M Chinnaswamy Stadium, which claimed 11 lives. Blaming the State Government's "insensitivity, irresponsible attitude and carelessness", he said that demanding special passes now would be equally insensitive while the memory of the tragedy remains fresh.

Youth Congress former national president BV Srinivas said, "Who started the discussion on MLAs being denied IPL tickets inside the Assembly? It was BJP's LoP R Ashoka, not Congress."

BJP's Bangalore South MP Tejasvi Surya said MLAs should not receive tickets as a privilege.

Former cricketer and KSCA president Venkatesh Prasad greets Chief Minister Siddaramaiah in Bengaluru on Friday | EXPRESS

The row erupted after Congress MLA Vijayanand Kashappanavar complained that legislators were being forced to stand in queues or buy expensive tickets like the general public. He demanded at least five (later scaled to four) VIP tickets per MLA with separate seating.

The demand, echoed across party lines, prompted Assembly Speaker UT Khader to direct the government to arrange premium tickets through DCM DK Shivakumar.

Chief Whip in council, Saleem Ahmed, MLC, told The New Indian Express, "I was in the room when the CM met Venkatesh Prasad. The CM was most courteous and offered all of us, including Prasad, panaka and another special dishes for Ram Navami. He spoke most courteously to Prasad for about 15 minutes. Before leaving Prasad wished the CM. Bangalore South MP Tejasvi Surya has taken a photograph out of context and made an observation without common sense."

'A VIP mindset that sees public office as entitlement'

THE MLAs and their families will get a separate VIP stand and this arrangement will continue for all future matches. Bengaluru South MP Tejasvi Surya, however, expressed displeasure over the freebies.

"We saw MLAs pleading and threatening to get free tickets for themselves and their families. This is not just poor priority. It exposes a deeper problem, a VIP mindset that sees public office as entitlement," he said. When media questioned Shivakumar on the MP's comments, he said let him give this lecture to his party (BJP) leaders who raised the issue in the House.

Shivakumar told reporters that four tickets cannot be given. "We have requested them to give two tickets for Saturday's first match," he added.

Officer designs spl cage to trap animals & cubs, uses app to shut doors

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

ADDRESSING man-animal conflict is a challenge, particularly when it involves a female with her litter. Until now, foresters used multiple traditional cages to capture a mother and cubs separately. Now, special mobile app secured electromagnetic brake cages have been developed by a department officer.

This type of automatic mobile app based cage locking system was used for the first time to capture a female sloth bear aged around 8, and her two sub-adult cubs aged around 10 months, in a township abutting Toranagallu Reserve Forest in Ballari on Thursday. The cage is large, with three sections, and the door to each section has electromagnetic switches for operation. These switches are connected to a common Wi-Fi and operated through the mobile application.

During Thursday's operation, camera traps were installed around the cage to monitor the movement of the animals. As the animals started walking into the cages and were safe inside, the app was used to operate the electromagnetic switches and lock the cage doors, explained Ballari Deputy Conservator of Forests KN Basavaraj. All camera trap images are monitored and stored on a common server of the department in the jurisdictional forest offices. "Normally cages are operated mechanically, with a trigger kept at a strategic location -- when the paw of the animal touches it, the cage door locks. In such cases, there are chances of the animal getting hurt or the mother being captured but not the cubs, or vice-versa. In this case, all the animals are safely captured. The entire operation is remotely monitored to ensure minimal error," he said.

This is the first time it has been used in India and the department aims to utilise it in all animal capture operations in the state. The first prototype was made in 2024 to capture a tigress and her four cubs near Mysuru. But the tigress did not enter the cage. The cage continues to be with the Mysuru forest division. In Ballari, makeshift metal cages were used, and the entire system was made at a cost of ₹4 lakh, of which ₹3.5 lakh was the cost of the cage and ₹50,000 was used for electromagnetic brakes, locks and switches.

The cage was designed by Deputy Range Forest Officer Mohan Kumar, who is a mechanical engineer by education. He used all his field experience and notes made while participating in complex animal capture operations to design the cages. He said the size of the brakes and the cage can be customised.

'NEP key to decolonisation, implementation will take time'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

STATING that the National Education Policy (NEP) contains all the necessary elements for decolonising the country's education system, BJP National General Secretary BL Santosh said that its implementation will take time and cannot happen overnight, especially in the face of political opposition.

He was speaking on the concluding day of the three-day Ekatma Manav Darshan – Bharat's Worldview international academic conference held at Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) in Mysuru on Friday.

Santosh described the journey of NEP implementation as a "bumpy ride," attributing delays to electoral cycles and resistance from some states. "The government can only provide a tool in the form of NEP. It is up to society to imbibe its spirit and implement it," he said.

Emphasising the long historical context, he noted that India had been under colonial influence for nearly four centuries and that true decolonisation would require sustained efforts over decades. "Decolonisation is not a short-term project. It will take at least 50 years of relentless pursuit," he added.

Santosh pointed out that frequent elections and ideological opposition have slowed down reforms, with some states preferring alternative approaches. Despite these challenges, he expressed confidence that NEP would gradually gain wider acceptance and be carried forward.

Speaking on the theme 'Philosophy to Policy: Contemporary Geopolitics, Economics and Civilisation Challenges', he emphasised on the need to take the principles of Ekatma Manav Darshan beyond academic discussions and into society. "This should not remain confined to intellectual discourse. It must reach policymakers and ultimately benefit the people," he said.

Highlighting the pervasive influence of Western thought, Santosh observed that individuals, academic institutions, and policymaking frameworks continue to be shaped by Western lifestyles and ideologies. "Decolonising the mind is the biggest challenge before us today," he said.

Ensure safety, no goof-ups, Chief Secretary directs officials

With the IPL tournament starting on Saturday, Chief Secretary Shalini Rajneesh held a meeting with officials and KSCA office-bearers on safety protocol and other arrangements. She sought information about security arrangements made inside and around the stadium for the safety of cricket lovers, changes made in the city's traffic system, parking arrangements, drinking water and other essential facilities inside the stadium. She also got information about the density of passengers using the Metro, running schedule, and additional security provided at Metro stations. The chief secretary instructed officials to be on high alert and avoid even minor unpleasant incidents. She told them to strictly follow rules and precautionary measures imposed by the government for organizing the tournament. Relevant information is to be exchanged with officials regularly.

Excise duty cut on fuel will benefit pvt oil firms, not citizens: Surjewala

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AICC General Secretary, Karnataka in-charge Randeep Singh Surjewala on Friday alleged that the BJP-led NDA government at the Centre slashed excise duty on petrol from Rs 13 to Rs 10, and on diesel from Rs 10 to 0, only to benefit oil companies Nayara and Reliance.

"The Union Government is planning to increase the prices of petrol, diesel and cooking gas during April 9-23 (after the polls to five states). The annual duty exemption of Rs 3,60,000 crore will benefit private oil companies and not the common man," Surjewala told reporters at the KPCC office in Bengaluru.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy CM DK Shivakumar were present.

"What kind of false narrative is the Centre propagating? It is being portrayed that the Centre's decision to slash duties on fuels will save Rs 36,000 crore per month and Rs 3,60,000 crore per year. In fact, the burden on people will not reduce even by a single rupee," he said. Surjewala urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to declare that he will not hike fuel prices after the polls to five states, saying that the Centre has the habit of increasing fuel prices after every election. "After the 2015 Delhi Assembly polls, after the 2019 Lok Sabha elections, and after the 2022 Uttar Pradesh Assembly polls, the Centre had increased fuel prices 14 times in a span of 16 days," Surjewala said, adding that since coming to power in 2024, the Modi government has "looted Rs 43 lakh crore at the rate of Rs 1,000 crore per day through diesel and petrol tax.

"The impact of the crisis that has arisen in West Asia has been severe, with Nayara Oil Company increasing the price of petrol by Rs 5.30 per litre and diesel by Rs 3. Five state elections will be held on April 9 and 23, after which the Centre is almost certain to increase fuel prices," the Congress leader said. "The Modi government's practice of lying, misleading and deceiving has started again. As part of this, it has decided to cut duty on petrol and diesel," he added. He further said that on the last day of the UPA II regime on May 26, 2014, the cost of petrol was Rs 71.41 per litre and diesel Rs 56.71 per litre. "At present, their prices are Rs 102.96 and Rs 90.99 respectively. In 2014, the price of crude oil was $108 per barrel. Before the ongoing West Asia crisis, the price per barrel was $70. From 2014 to 2025, the Modi government has imposed a duty of Rs 19.70 on petrol and Rs 15.50 on diesel," he elaborated.

During the UPA government in 2014, the price of a cooking gas cylinder was Rs 412, he said. "In March 2026, it was Rs 913, an increase of Rs 501 at 121.6% in 12 years. In 2014, the commercial LPG price was Rs 1541 (19 kg), now it is Rs 1,884.50," he added.

Govt cancels 452.5-acre land grant to IAF

Khandre says North B'luru land will be transferred to forest dept, protected as lung space for city

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FOREST Minister Eshwar B Khandre on Friday issued orders cancelling the 452.5-acre land grant to the Indian Air Force in Jarakabande Kaval in Bengaluru North.

The minister said the land will be transferred to the forest department and protected as a lung space for the city. In the order, Khandre stated that the land has no connection to the defence establishment. Officials have been directed to conduct all the processes under Section 64A of the Karnataka Forest Act. "If any infrastructure development work has to be undertaken in forest areas, applicants have to make an appeal on the Parivesh Portal, seeking permission from the forest department," he said and directed officials to communicate this to all government agencies and departments.

According to forest officials, this is the second time orders cancelling possession of Jarakabande Kaval reserve forest land has been issued. "Earlier, orders were issued in 2017. Since then the land has not been recovered. In 1987, the then district commissioner had sold the land for Rs 50,000 per acre. But as per forest rules, once a land is notified as forest patch, it cannot be converted and sold or purchased," an official said.

"All survey numbers in possession with the Indian Air Force are reserve forest land parcels. In the revenue records, it continues to be mentioned as forest land. We have also sought recovery of 194 acres at Peenya plantations forest land and 159 acres at Gantiganahalli reserve forest land where the IAF conducts its air shows. We have written multiple times, but there has been no reply from the defence establishment. We even suggested to them to apply on Parivesh Portal in 2017, but that was also not done," the official added.

HC quashes BMTF complaint against Sri Sri on land grabbing

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

PERMITTING proceedings against spiritual leader Sri Sri Ravi Shankar, founder of Art of Living Foundation, only on the score that he was named respondent in a public interest litigation concerning encroachment of government land, despite no iota of allegation against him, would become abuse of the process of law, the Karnataka High Court said.

Justice M Nagaprasanna passed the order, quashing the crime registered by Bengaluru Metropolitan Task Force (BMTF) on September 19, 2025, against Sri Sri Ravi Shankar.

Allowing his petition challenging the legality of the proceedings, the court stated that the complaint is based on three factors: public interest litigation, proceedings before the Karnataka Land Grabbing Prohibition Special Court and report of the tahsildar. "BMTF registered the crime, and there is no procedural aberration committed by it. At the same time, there is no allegation against the petitioner that can become the offence invoked against him."

Therefore, interference of this court was warranted on the score that even if the complaint is taken on its face value, it does not make out an offence against the petitioner, as there is not even an iota of allegation against him in encroachment of government land, the court said.

BMTF registered a suo motu complaint under Section 192-A of the Karnataka Land Revenue Act, 1964, on September 19, 2025, based on the report of the Bengaluru South tahsildar, before the court hearing the case of land grabbing, alleging that the petitioner and four others have encroached government land, lake and rajakaluve in Sy Nos. 160, 164/1, 164/2, 150, 137, 135 and 46 in Kagalipura village, Uttarahalli hobli, Bengaluru South taluk. Therefore, Sri Sri Ravi Shankar moved the high court against it.

The court noted that perusal of the complaint would clearly indicate there is no allegation against the petitioner for land grabbing or encroachment of government land.

Merely because he was arrayed as respondent No.5 in the PIL, proceedings are drawn against him by dragging him into the web of proceedings. It cannot be registered without any prima facie material, which cannot be gathered during investigation. It must exist in the complaint, the court observed.

Sudhakar pushes three-stage water treatment for KC Valley projects

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kolar

CHIKKABALLAPUR MP Dr K Sudhakar urged on Friday that water released into tanks and lakes in the drought-prone Bayaluseeme districts under the KC Valley Project and HN Valley Project must undergo a three-stage treatment before being discharged.

Raising the issue in 'Kannada' during zero hour in the Lok Sabha, he highlighted the long-standing water scarcity faced by the Chikkaballapur, Bengaluru Rural, and Kolar districts, and emphasised the need for a permanent irrigation and water security solution. Sudhakar said when in power, the BJP government in Karnataka had proposed in the state budget to ensure tertiary (third-stage) treated water under the KC Valley and HN Valley projects for the region. He also called for the expeditious completion of the Yettinahole Project and urged the Union Government to seriously explore the possibilities of ensuring permanent and long-term water security for the Bayaluseeme region by bringing at least 15 TMC of water from the Krishna River to the region. Sudhakar said safe water, groundwater recharge, and sustainable irrigation remain a priority.

HELPING STUDENTS

SSLC third language score won't be included in final marks: Madhu

RASHMI PATIL @ Bengaluru

IN a significant relief to students, the Karnataka government on Friday announced that the third language paper in SSLC exams will not be allotted marks, but will be graded. It will also not be included in the total marks. The move comes after over 1.64 lakh students failed in the third language and of them, 1.48 lakh students flunked in Hindi in 2024-25.

The new system comes into effect from the current academic year, even as over 8 lakh students will appear for the third language exams on March 31. Calling an "urgent" press conference on Friday, Minister for Primary and Secondary Education Madhu Bangarappa said, "From this year, we are introducing a grade system for third language instead of marks. Students will write the exam for 100 marks as usual and they will be given grades A, B, C and D. However, it will not be considered for total marks. The total marks henceforth will be 525 instead of 625."

He said, "In other states, including Tamil Nadu and Uttar Pradesh, they teach only two languages in schools and students too write exams only for those two languages. Only our state is teaching three languages in schools. For now, the grading system is limited to SSLC and the department will decide on other classes soon." He asserted that students from Karnataka will be able to score better in SSLC and get jobs like people from other states.

Third language includes Hindi, Kannada, English, Arabic, Marathi, Urdu, Tulu, Konkani and Sanskrit. The government's decision came after Kannada activists, including Kannada Rakshana Vedike, Kannada film producer and former president of Kannada Film Chamber and Commerce SaRa Govindu and others submitted a memorandum on Friday morning to Madhu. They requested him to cancel the third language exam marks, especially Hindi, as many students failed in the subject and their percentage too got hit. This deprived them of getting seats in top colleges. Two weeks ago, they had threatened to lay siege to exam centres if the Karnataka State Examination and Assessment Board did not cancel the exam. The board had written to the minister and Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, seeking their intervention. Madhu said a policy will be brought in, considering factors like languages to be taught in Urdu medium schools, total number of schools where Kannada is also taught as a third language.

60-day relaxation for schools of all streams: Min

BENGALURU: On the 60-day age relaxation for class 1, LKG and UKG admissions for 2026-27, Minister Madhu Bangarappa said, "It applies to schools across various boards, including state, CBSE and ICSE. When these schools function in our state, they are bound to follow our rules. The department will soon come out with a framework to streamline admissions to class 1, LKG and UKG, so that this problem doesn't recur every year."

Students will write the exam for 100 marks as usual and they will be given grades A, B, C and D. However, it will not be considered for total marks

Madhu Bangarappa, Education Minister

Educationists call for 2-language policy after SSLC grading decision

RASHMI PATIL @Bengaluru

SOON after the Department of School Education and Literacy (DSEL) announced grades for Third Language exams instead of marks for SSLC students, most of the academicians have welcomed the move. They advised the department to take necessary steps in this regard considering various factors like Urdu medium schools, total number of schools teaching Kannada as third language in the state and other reasons.

They also urged the state government to implement the State Education Policy from the next academic year, so that these confusions can be avoided. The SEP draft policy provides for implementation of two language policy focusing on Kannada or the mother tongue and English languages. Kannada Development Authority Chairman Dr Purushottam Bilimale has welcomed the decision. He said, "This decision complements the bilingual policy advocated in the SEP and will reduce unnecessary language pressure on students and also promote the growth of the Kannada language."Bilimale said this decision is an effective step towards making the state's education system Kannada-friendly. However, Prof Venugopal KR, former Vice-Chancellor, Bangalore University, said, "The government must not conduct state-level board exams for third language if they have decided to grade it. For instance, in the higher education system, we have some subjects that we call audit subjects. Such subjects are not considered for total marks. Hence, students are given some assignments or internal tests instead of conducting exams. It is a waste of resources like spending money on exam sheets, paying evaluator fees." Prof Dominic Davidappa, HOD, Kannada department, Bangalore University, Jnanabharati campus, said, "SEP Commission has recommended a dual language policy. It is very important that in doing so, no other languages of the state have been neglected. For example, Urdu speakers in Karnataka can study Urdu as their first language if they want to. Then they must study Kannada, the state language, as a second language. And any language from the country or abroad can be studied as a third language. There will be no examination for that third language."

However, another professor from Dr Manmohan Singh Bengaluru City University, on condition of anonymity said, "The decision will lead to teachers ignoring third language leading to low quality of teaching and students will also neglect learning it. In fact, this reduces the level of competency among students. Having proficiency in more than two languages will always help students pursue other subjects better."

Rescued tigress being shifted to Koorgalli Rehabilitation Centre | EXPRESS

FORESTERS at the Bandipur Tiger Reserve rescued an 11-year-old tigress that was found weak and ailing on Thursday.

According to Gundlupet Assistant Conservator of Forests (ACF) Ravishankar, the tigress was found lying on the ground at Survey No. 25/1 in Chennamallipura village under the Baragi range of the Maddur Wildlife Zone in the Gundlupet sub-division of the Bandipur Tiger Project. Forest staff continuously monitored the animal from the morning of March 26, and after following due procedures, a capture operation was carried out in the evening.

Officials noted that the tigress showed very little movement during the operation. The animal has been assigned the code Bandipur17_U2712. The rescue was carried out by forest personnel with the assistance of trained camp elephants, Mahendra, Bhima and Bhagiratha, using tranquilisation techniques.

"The tigress is safe and has been shifted to the Koorgalli Rehabilitation Centre for further care. She is currently under supervision, as per the directions of senior officials," the ACF said.

AIADMK releases 2nd list; DMK list expected today

Ruling party finalises seat sharing with VCK, CPI, MDMK, but talks on with Cong

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

WHILE the AIADMK released its second list of 123 candidates on Friday, taking the total number of candidates announced so far to 150, negotiations continued in the DMK alliance with the ruling party holding marathon talks with allies to settle overlapping claims for a few seats from partners.

There were expectations that DMK president and CM MK Stalin would release the list of constituencies the party and alliance parties will be contesting by Friday evening and arrangements were under way at the party headquarters for the same. However, late on Friday, party sources said that the list can be expected only on Saturday as talks were still under way, especially with the Congress, DMDK and CPM, over their demands for a few specific constituencies.

TNCC president K Selvaperunthagai told reporters that the party has finalised 23 of 28 seats with the DMK. Dissenting voices began to emerge from within the Congress later in the day with party MP Jothimani strongly criticising TNCC for carrying out the finalisation of constituencies without any discussion or transparency. DMK sources confirmed that the list of constituencies for its other key allies, including VCK, CPI and MDMK, has been finalised.

AIADMK chief Edappadi K Palaniswami, who has been mounting criticisms on DMK over alleged differences within their alliance, continued to lace into the DMK coalition on the issue during his campaigns in Alandur and Tambaram on Friday.

He will attend NDA's election rally in Pala, supporting its candidates for Pala, Poonjar, Kanjirappally. B'luru-Chennai Expressway hits legal hurdles, delayed indefinitely

The under-construction Arakkonam-Kancheepuram section of the expressway | EXPRESS

THE opening of the Bengaluru-Chennai Expressway (BCE), a four-lane access-controlled highway, has been postponed indefinitely as work on the pending stretches in Arakkonam and Kancheepuram (26 km), which has remained stalled for nearly 10 months, is ensnared in troubles.

The 262-km Chennai-Bengaluru Expressway was originally scheduled for completion by December last year, but the deadline was extended to June this year due to delay in land acquisition, shifting of high-tension power lines and towers, and other factors. The expressway aims to reduce the travel time between Chennai and Bengaluru to just three hours.

Official sources from the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) told TNIE that the concessionaire of Arakkonam-Kancheepuram section has approached the high court seeking permission to transfer the project to another contractor, and the matter is still pending.

"Work has not resumed so far. Once it restarts, it will take at least 12 months to complete the remaining 15km. Only after the court case is resolved and civil works recommence can we confirm a revised deadline for the project," an official said. Of the 26km in Arakkonam-Kancheepuram section, 11.2 km (54%) has been completed so far.

KCR's daughter Kavitha to float party on April 25

AGENCIES @ Hyderabad

TELANGANA Jagruthi president K Kavitha on Friday said she would launch her new political party on April 25 with "Telangana-centric" issues as its main focus. Speaking to reporters in Nizamabad, she said the name and flag of the party would be announced at 10 AM on April 25 at an event to be held at Muneerabad on the outskirts of Hyderabad.

Alleging negligence of people's issues, including farmers, by major parties, Kavitha, daughter of BRS chief K Chandrasekhar Rao, said a new political force is needed in the state to achieve 'Sarvodaya Telangana' (progress of all).

Asked if any national level leaders would be invited for the party launch event, she replied in the negative and said her outfit would be the "regional party of Telangana".

"BRS lost focus when it gave up Telangana and announced a national foray. There is no regional party in Telangana now. So, our Jagruthi would be the party of every household. It would be Telangana's regional party," she said.

Kavitha said "95 per cent" of her proposed party's focus would be on Telangana and its problems, and the organisation would have a national committee to deal with national issues. Her party would not be the "B team" of any party but would emerge as the "number one" in Telangana, she said.

Asked if she would like the BRS cadre to join her, she said it is with her. Kavitha also said youth and women would have importance in her party.

Seeking the support of women, she said they have witnessed the parties formed by men all these years, and they should support her new outfit. The performance of the incumbent Congress government is also far from satisfactory, she said.

FUEL PRICE CUSHION TOUGH TO MAINTAIN IF CRUDE OIL KEEPS RISING

AMID rising global crude oil prices, the government on Friday reduced central excise duty on petrol and diesel for domestic consumption by ₹10 a litre. The move benefits oil marketing companies (OMCs) directly and consumers indirectly by cushioning them from higher prices. Before the Gulf war, global crude benchmarks were hovering around $70-75 a barrel, which translated into a domestic fuel cost of about ₹40 a litre. But it was sold above ₹100 after accounting for refining, freight, central excise and state levies, dealer commissions and OMC margins. Within this, central excise comprised the biggest component. But now, Indian OMCs are losing about ₹48 a litre after absorbing the ongoing rise in global crude prices. According to Petroleum and Natural Gas Minister Hardeep Singh Puri, central excise stood at about ₹24-30 a litre for petrol and diesel, and by forgoing a part of it, the government is taking a huge hit on tax revenue.

The government also imposed export duties on diesel and aviation turbine fuel, ensuring adequate domestic availability. Officials say the moves attempt to shield Indians from the global price and supply shocks amid the West Asia crisis. But critics insist that the actual reason behind the duty cuts was the assembly elections next month. Regardless, the move gives a breather to consumers and OMCs for now, though it is unclear if the duty cuts would prevail in May if the global prices stay higher for longer. If past experience is anything to by, fuel tax cuts are more about political parties' self-fulfilling philosophy of politics today, economics tomorrow. For instance, between March and April 2022, the government slapped Indians with 14 fuel price hikes in 16 days after a 137-day freeze during state assembly elections.

Fuel prices are market-driven, yet politicians wield them cautiously with the wisdom that they can topple governments. Importantly, they are an important revenue source both for the Centre and the states, which means that if the global price rises continue, the Centre may not be able to hold the domestic prices down for long. Such a prospect will feed inflation, which affects both households and businesses. That said, it's essential for the government to find the right balance between market discipline and the generosity of the welfare State.

RAILWAYS MUST ENSURE EQUITY IN INSURANCE COVER

THE recent intervention of the Supreme Court on railway travel insurance has exposed an inequality in India's public transport system. It questioned why insurance is limited to online ticket buyers, highlighting a simple principle: access to safety cannot depend on access to technology. Today, passengers booking online can opt for insurance at just 45 paise, with coverage up to ₹10 lakh. Yet those who buy tickets at station counters—nearly 1.9 lakh reserved passengers every day—are denied the same option. This is a structural exclusion that leaves a huge section of passengers without even the choice of basic financial protection.

The Railways' defence was based on difficulties in identifying counter passengers and preventing misuse. But that does not hold up. As the court pointed out, administrative inconvenience cannot justify unequal treatment. The tech-driven systems already rely on Aadhaar, mobile numbers and digital records. So, to say that it is difficult to identify passengers at ticket counters sounds less like a constraint. When tickets are issued, responsibility follows. Systems must adapt to ensure equal access, not avoid it.

This exclusion also falls hardest on those already disadvantaged. Nearly 89 percent of reserved tickets are booked online, but the remaining 11 percent still represents lakhs of journeys each year. These are often made by elderly passengers, rural users, the poor, and those without reliable internet access. In unreserved travel, where physical ticketing dominates and risks are higher, the absence of affordable insurance becomes even more serious. With over 21,000 railway-related deaths annually, mostly from falls, overcrowding and unsafe platforms, denying such passengers the insurance safeguard is difficult to justify. At the same time, insurance cannot be seen as the final answer. It deals with the aftermath, not the cause. Many of these deaths are predictable and preventable. They are the outcome of neglect rather than collisions and derailments, which are rare. Expanding insurance without addressing these shortcomings risks normalising loss.

The way forward is two-fold. Insurance must become available across all ticketing modes, with awareness efforts reaching those outside digital systems. Safety must simultaneously improve through better crowd control, stronger infrastructure and smarter use of technology. A transport system should not measure its success by how quickly it pays compensation after an incident. Equal risk demands equal protection, but it also demands fewer risks.

QUICK TAKE

THE WAR OF IMAGES

THERE'S a nodding acceptance among warring sides that for heads to be held high, the eyes might need to be closed. Worried about missiles hitting morales apart from structures, all sides in the Gulf war are cracking down on people posting images of post-strike devastation. Vehemently denying successful enemy action, the only superpower involved whisked a nuclear-powered aircraft carrier far from the battlefield, sidelining it for 14 months to attend to what it claims were laundry room fire and clogged toilets. One curious reverse of this obfuscation is that Iran, which has imposed a near-total internet shutdown, is letting out selective images of heartbreaking human losses and funerals. Viewers wary of AI making the incomplete picture more untrustworthy must go by the old dictum: verify before trusting.

India has changed its approach to population growth from the earlier neo-Malthusian alarm borrowed from the West. Now the focus must shift to its impact on resources, not just Parliament seats

CONTROL TO WELFARE: EVOLVING APPROACHES OF A POPULOUS NATION

K SRINATH REDDY

SOURAV ROY

TWO recent publications on India's demographic profile and population policy weave interesting perspectives with a historical thread. One reflected on past attempts to restrain population growth and the other projected anticipated future trends. Both offer rich learnings on the transition from India's past alarm over 'population explosion' to recent pondering on 'falling fertility' and its impact on our workforce, health and human development.

The first is a reflective piece by Mushtaque Chowdhury, a renowned public health leader of Bangladesh, titled 'From population control to policy by numbers'. Chowdhury describes how Paul Ehrlich's 1968 neo-Malthusian book The Population Bomb terrified economists and policymakers in affluent Western nations with apocalyptic descriptions of a population tsunami in 'developing countries'. The 'developed world' then imposed an agenda of 'population control' on countries like India through aid programmes.

Sripati Chandrasekhar, a demographer and sociologist who served as India's health minister in 1967, ardently embraced this agenda. He established a department of family planning, advocated a 'cafeteria approach' to fertility control, launched sterilisation drives and persuaded Parliament to raise the age of marriage. His passion for population control influenced the Indian elite, including Sanjay Gandhi, who proceeded to implement his own aggressive campaign of sterilisation during the infamous emergency of the 1970s. Gifts of cash and 'transistor radio' incentivised women to undergo tubectomy and men to undergo vasectomy.

Chowdhury narrates how this doomsday portrayal of the 'population bomb' was countered by the 1972 book The Myth of Population Control: Family, Class and Caste in an Indian Village. The author was Professor Mahmood Mamdani, academician father of New York Mayor Zohran Mamdani. The book questioned the claimed success of a Rockefeller Foundation-funded family planning study conducted by Harvard University in Khanna, Punjab. While researchers claimed high rates of 'acceptance' of contraceptive advice and drugs by the rural population, there was no discernible impact on fertility rates. Yet, this study became the poster child for global advocacy on family planning.

Mamdani, an anthropologist, pointed out that poor agricultural families may signal acceptance because of the perceived eminence of an American university which operated with support of the central and state governments. However, they are disinclined to limit family size because of labour-intensive agriculture. Children also hold the promise of future economic security when parents age. As Chowdhury comments: "What surveys recorded as acceptance often reflected deference rather than conviction. In statistical terms, uptake had increased... In social terms, compliance masked constraints."

The slogan 'Development is the best contraceptive' was coined in 1974 by the then Indian health minister Karan Singh at the World Population Conference in Bucharest, Romania. Subsequent Indian and global experience validated that axiom. South Indian states, which prioritised concomitant economic and social development policies, lowered fertility rates without resorting to coercive measures, while others who won national awards for high 'couple protection' rates continued to show high birth rates.

By the late 20th century, Western countries had already recorded low birth rates alongside economic growth. At present, late blooming Asian economies like Singapore and South Korea are trying to offset falling fertility rates by offering incentives to couples for producing more children. India's economic growth, though late and uneven, is also impacting fertility rates.

Over time, India transitioned from family planning to family welfare, and from population control to population stabilisation. Recent national estimates reveal a total fertility rate (TFR) of 1.9, which is below the replacement rate of 2.1. Among the states, there is variation ranging from 1.1 in Sikkim to 3.0 in Bihar. Rural TFR is 2.1, while the urban rate is 1.6. As marriage and conception rates are falling among educated urban couples, the economic, social and political implications of this demographic shift are being debated.

The second publication is a report by the International Institute of Migration and Development and the Population Foundation that projected India's demographic evolution between 2021 and 2051. In a recent article on the report, its lead researchers, S Irudaya Rajan and J Retnakumar, stated that India's population would likely increase from 1,355.8 million in 2021 to 1,590.1 million in 2051. They report that the average annual increase of 0.5 percent suggests a prolonged period of slower expansion. It concludes, "India is poised to move beyond a youth-led, fast expanding population into an era of more urban, steadily ageing, balanced demographic structure."

While debates rage on the impact of different rates of fertility decline among parliamentary representation in the future, it is also important to recognise that large populations have an ecological impact in terms of demands on land, water, food and energy. They can erase natural ecological barriers to microbial migration through efforts to expand urban housing and farming. We need to balance population size with sustainable human development, ecological sanctity and health security.

Policy and programmatic responses to this pendulum swing in demographic dynamics must include a shift of emphasis to promotion and protection of population health rather than population stabilisation; addressing malnutrition in all forms across the life course; increased health system capacity for addressing ailments of the elderly, especially non-communicable diseases, mental health disorders, disabilities at any age; and action on commercial and environmental determinants that imperil health.

These will rank as high priorities alongside health system responses to climate change and pandemic threats. Since the size of India's working-age population is expected to start declining only after 2041, health workforce expansion can create employment for young persons. There is still time to reap the demographic and gender dividends.

Despite falling numbers in the 0-5 age group, six out of every 10 Indians will be vying for participation in the workforce by 2051. Since technology—including artificial intelligence—is scissoring jobs, India must invest in developing available human resources for technology-enabled, team-based training to meet growing healthcare needs of the foreseeable future.

WATERSHED OR MORE OF THE SAME?

R KANNAN
Author of Anna: Life and Times of CN Annadurai, MGR: A Life and The DMK Years: Ascent, Descent, Survival

THE election results on May 4 will offer insights into five key questions for Tamil Nadu. First, as actor-turned-politician C Joseph Vijay suggested in July 2025, could this election mark a watershed moment, comparable to 1967 and 1977? Second, is Vijay the X factor in this contest, and if so, to what extent can he shape outcomes? Third, has the AIADMK retained its 2021 strength? Fourth, in Jayalalithaa's absence, does the DMK hold a clearer advantage? And finally, what might these results indicate about the BJP's longer-term prospects in the state?

In 1967, C N Annadurai's DMK defeated an undivided Congress led by K Kamaraj in a two-cornered contest, aided by a broad alliance that lent weight to what critics had described as a relatively smaller party. In 1977, M G Ramachandran secured power in a four-cornered contest with a 30 percent vote share, supported by alliances that proved crucial to his success. In both instances, electoral breakthroughs were underpinned not only by leadership appeal but also by organisational depth and political partnerships.

Vijay's entry presents a different dynamic. Since launching the Tamilaga Vetri Kazhagam in February 2024, he has stayed away from electoral contests and is now entering the fray independently. At this stage, his role is best understood as that of an X factor—one who could influence margins, particularly in urban and semi-urban constituencies, even if the extent of that influence remains uncertain.

His ability to draw large crowds, especially among younger voters, is evident. With nearly a fifth of the electorate under 30, this demographic presence is not insignificant. There may also be some support from sections of women, minority communities and voters who had earlier backed smaller parties. However, the translation of such visibility into votes is not always linear.

The trajectory of Vijayakanth offers a useful, if not directly comparable, reference point. In 2006, his DMDK secured 8.4 percent of the vote in a trilateral contest, affecting outcomes across several constituencies. By 2009 and 2011, his role had evolved through alliances, enabling him to emerge as a significant player for a period.

At the same time, sustaining such a position proved challenging. The experience underscored the importance of organisational consolidation, leadership depth and consistent political engagement beyond electoral cycles. In that sense, while Vijay may register a notable presence, the extent to which it translates into a durable political role will depend on factors that go beyond immediate electoral performance.

In the current context, it is plausible that he could emerge as a third force or influence the balance in a closely contested scenario. Achieving that, however, would require sustained organisational development, broader leadership structures and more consistent engagement with both cadres and the public sphere.

EXPRESS

To understand the impact of Vijay in Tamil Nadu politics, the trajectory of Vijayakanth offers a useful reference point. In the earlier case, sustaining the initial surge of voter enthusiasm proved challenging. The presence of multiple parties and alliances shapes vote consolidation across segments

The AIADMK's performance will be closely watched, too. In 2021, the difference between AIADMK and DMK was relatively narrow in terms of vote shares, within the framework of alliances that shaped the contest.

Subsequent realignments, including the return of T T V Dhinakaran's AMMK to the AIADMK fold, may have some bearing on electoral arithmetic in specific regions. Such shifts could help consolidate sections of the vote base that had previously been fragmented.

At the same time, electoral outcomes in the state have often been influenced by broader alliance configurations and campaign dynamics. Edappadi K Palaniswami has consolidated his position within the party, and the extent to which that translates into electoral traction will become clearer as the contest unfolds.

Since Jayalalithaa's passing, the DMK has held office and maintained its organisational presence across the state. Its alliance structure and welfare-oriented approach form part of its electoral strategy, as is typical of governance in Tamil Nadu. As with any incumbent, there are both advantages and challenges. How these are weighed by the electorate will depend on a range of factors, including local issues, campaign narratives and turnout patterns.

The BJP, for its part, has been seeking to expand its footprint in the state over time. Its trajectory has seen gradual growth, often in alliance with regional parties. At the same time, Tamil Nadu's political landscape has historically been shaped by distinct linguistic, cultural and regional factors, which continue to influence voter preferences.

The presence of multiple parties and alliances also has the effect of shaping vote consolidation across different segments of the electorate. In this context, the BJP's role may be better assessed over a longer horizon rather than through a single electoral cycle.

Taken together, the upcoming election may reflect a measure of continuity, alongside elements of change at the margins. The principal Dravidian parties remain central to the contest, supported by established organisational networks and alliances.

Vijay's presence introduces a variable that could influence outcomes in specific constituencies and, potentially, the overall balance in a close contest. Whether this evolves into a more enduring political role will depend on developments beyond this election.

For now, the results may be less about a decisive break from the past and more about how existing political formations adapt to emerging shifts within the electorate.

MoD nod to buy S-400s, medium transport aircraft, strike drones

Also signs contracts for upkeep of Tunguska air defence and Navy's reconnaissance fleet

JAVARIA RANA @ New Delhi

THE Ministry of Defence has cleared a massive ₹2.38 lakh crore capital acquisition package, giving the go-ahead for 60 medium transport aircraft, five additional S-400 long-range air defence system squadrons, and four squadrons of remotely piloted strike aircraft (RPSA) for the Indian Air Force, along with artillery, ammunition, and networked systems for the Army.

The Defence Acquisition Council (DAC), chaired by Defence Minister Rajnath Singh, accorded the approvals on Friday and granted Acceptance of Necessity, the first step in beginning the procurement process. Timelines for induction for approved systems will vary as per their delivery schedules.

In a separate exercise, the ministry also inked contracts worth ₹858 crore for the Tunguska air defence system and sustainment of the Navy's P-8I reconnaissance fleet on Friday in an effort to shore up its air defence grid and maritime surveillance backbone.

Sources said that the the ministry struck a ₹445 crore deal with Russia's Rosoboronexport for the procurement of spares and support packages for the Indian Army's Tunguska short-range air defence (SHORAD) systems. In the Navy deal, the ministry signed a ₹413 crore contract with Boeing India Defense Private Ltd for depot-level inspection and maintenance of the P-8I long-range maritime reconnaissance aircraft.

The proposed acquisition of 60 medium transport aircraft for the IAF, pegged at around ₹1 lakh crore, is the single-largest component of acquisition package approved by the DAC. This is likely to kick-start a long-delayed effort to replace the ageing Soviet-origin AN-32 fleet. Sources said the programme will be pursued under the buy-and-make route, with 12 aircraft to be procured in flyaway condition and the remaining 48 to be manufactured in India.

Five additional squadrons of the Russian-origin S-400 long-range surface-to-air missile systems, estimated to cost around ₹50,000 crore, have also been cleared. During Operation Sindoor, the S-400 system had proved its effectiveness and carried out the longest-range ground-to-air kill in military history, taking down a PAF SAAB 2000 Erieye.

The IAF will also get four squadrons of the RPSA through the indigenous route, with each squadron expected to comprise around eight to 10 armed unmanned aerial systems. Sources explained that the programme, estimated at around ₹45,000 crore, will provide long-endurance surveillance and precision strike capability against high-value targets without putting pilots at risk.

Furthemore, the ministry cleared the overhaul of Su-30 MK-I aero engines to extend the service life of the fighter fleet and sustain operational availability.

For the Army, approval has been accorded for 300 Dhanush artillery guns worth around ₹2,500 crore, which will take the total Dhanush inventory to 444. The indigenously developed 155 mm, 45-calibre towed gun, based on the Bofors design, has a strike range of up to 38 kilometres and features upgraded fire control and all-weather operational capability.

Jaishankar meets Rubio, Canadian counterpart at G7

JAYANTH JACOB @ New Delhi

THE escalating West Asia crisis and its global economic fallout dominated discussions as External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar held key bilateral meetings with US Secretary of State Marco Rubio and Canadian Foreign Minister Anita Anand on the sidelines of the G7 Foreign Ministers' Meeting in France, where India sharpened its diplomatic messaging on long-term global governance reforms.

Jaishankar, who arrived in France on Thursday for the meeting at Abbaye des Vaux-de-Cernay, at the invitation of French Foreign Minister Jean-Noël Barrot, described his engagement with Rubio as "useful," signaling continued coordination between New Delhi and Washington amid intensifying geopolitical tensions linked to the West Asia conflict. This is the second interaction between the two leaders since the war began on February 28.

In another meeting, Jaishankar and Anand reviewed progress in bilateral ties following recent high-level exchanges, with the Canadian minister noting that discussions covered trade, the situation in the Middle East, and cooperation in sectors such as critical minerals, agriculture, and education.

At the center of the G7 deliberations is the security of the Strait of Hormuz, a vital global energy corridor through which nearly 20 percent of the world's oil and liquefied natural gas supplies transit. The recent disruption in shipping flows, following Iran's moves to restrict access, has pushed up global energy prices and heightened the urgency of diplomatic efforts to ensure the waterway remains open.

The G7 grouping, comprising Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom, and the United States, along with the European Union, has convened amid growing concerns over the wider economic ripple effects of the crisis. Using the platform, India amplified the concerns of the Global South, with Jaishankar calling for urgent reform of the United Nations Security Council and broader global governance structures. He stressed the need to streamline peacekeeping operations and strengthen humanitarian supply chains, while highlighting the disproportionate burden borne by developing nations.

"Highlighted the urgency of UNSC reforms, streamlining peacekeeping operations, and strengthening humanitarian supply chains. Specifically raising the Global South's concerns about energy challenges, fertilizer supplies, and food security," Jaishankar said.

With partner countries such as India, Saudi Arabia, South Korea, and Brazil invited to the meeting, New Delhi's intervention was seen as its attempt to position itself at the center of an evolving global order. India's message combined immediate priorities such as maritime security and stabilising energy flows with a longer-term push to reshape international institutions, reflecting its ambition to emerge as a leading voice bridging developed and developing worlds amid overlapping geopolitical and economic crises.

India slams Pak Army chief's remarks on Shias

1.3% trains delayed by over 3 hrs in '25-'26, Vaishnaw tells Parliament

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

INDIAN Railways has achieved an overall train punctuality rate of over 77% across all zones during 2025-26. Only three out of the 18 operational zones recorded punctuality levels exceeding 90%. More than half a dozen other zones maintained punctuality between 77% and 90% in train operations, Railway Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw told the Rajya Sabha on Friday.

Punctuality has been impacted by several factors, including foggy weather, path constraints, asset maintenance, and other issues such as alarm chain pulling, agitations and cattle run-overs. Despite these challenges, the Railways said only 1.3% of trains were delayed by more than three hours during 2025-26 compared to 1.4% in 2024–25. "To improve punctuality, Railways undertakes rationalisation of timetables. One such exercise was carried out with the assistance of IIT Mumbai using their traffic simulator. The exercise aimed at providing fixed integrated maintenance blocks on all sections to minimise detention and improve punctuality," Vaishnaw said in reply to a question from MP MB Wasnik.

According to official data, the Railways operates nearly 25,000 trains per day, including suburban and freight services across various routes. However, key routes like Delhi-Howrah and Mumbai-Howrah remain highly congested, among other routes, which affect the punctual running of trains. To address this, the ministry has increased the capacity of the existing rail network over the past 11 years.

Between 2014 and 2025, 34,428 km of new tracks were commissioned at an average rate of 8.6 km per day, compared to the pre-2014 average of 4.9 km per day.

The minister said, "To ensure regular, continuous and real-time monitoring of punctuality of trains, technological tools and IT systems have been put in place." He said the Railways is also using the Modified Semi-Automatic Stop Signal (MASS) system during abnormal conditions like fog impairing visibility.

Key routes congested

According to official data, the Railways operates nearly 25,000 trains per day, including suburban and freight services across various routes. However, key routes like Delhi-Howrah and Mumbai-Howrah remain highly congested, among other routes, which affect the punctual running of trains.

Disaster travel protocol during crisis sought

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

RJD MP Sanjay Yadav on Friday called for regulation of "dynamic pricing" by airlines, ambulances, and app-based taxi services during times of disaster, crisis, and distress.

Yadav said in the Rajya Sabha that whenever the nation faces crises, such as terrorist attacks, natural calamities, or major accidents, certain companies, particularly airlines and private transport providers, turn these situations into opportunities for profit. "This reflects a heartless mindset that seeks to capitalise on human suffering. The entire nation was deeply concerned following the terrorist incident in Pahalgam. But what transpired at that moment? The airfare for a flight from Srinagar to Delhi—which ranges between ₹6,000 and ₹8,000—skyrocketed to ₹65,000," he said.

This is not an isolated occurrence, but a recurring pattern, he said. "During disasters, accidents, and periods of crisis—when people are compelled to evacuate a specific region immediately—ticket prices shoot up under the guise of 'dynamic pricing'. During floods, rations, fuel, water, and essential food items are sold at exorbitant prices. During emergencies, under the guise of 'surge pricing,' the fares for app-based cab services and ambulances are hiked by 4 to 5 times," he said.

The MP alleged that goods and services which should be provided free during disasters are subject to profiteering, which he described as indicative of governmental failure. Yadav noted that the issue extends beyond emergencies. "When the nation is in crisis, the prices of essential commodities skyrocket uncontrollably. Black marketing, hoarding, and profiteering become rampant," he said.

Yadav proposed enactment of a "crisis fare cap law" to impose a maximum price ceiling on tickets, hotel accommodation, medicines, and transport services during disasters. "Just as there are protocols for medical emergencies, a 'National Disaster Travel' protocol should be established."

'Goods and services must be free during disasters'

Yadav noted that the issue extends beyond emergencies. "When the nation is in crisis, the prices of essential items go up uncontrollably," he said.

'DOMESTIC FERTILISER OUTPUT AT 24L TON'

India produced 24.23 lakh tonnes of fertiliser, including urea and DAP, in the first three weeks of March, notwithstanding the gas supply crunch amid the West Asia crisis, Parliament was informed on Friday. Of which, urea production was '13.55 lakh tonnes, while Di ammonium Phosphate (DAP)/NPK and Single Super Phosphate (SSP) were at 7.62 lakh tonnes and 3.06 lakh tonnes, during March 1-24, Minister of State for Fertilisers Anupriya Patel said in her written reply to the Lok Sabha.

H-1B, L-1 VISA INTRODUCTION NOTED: GOVT

The government on Friday informed Parliament that it has taken note of the introduction of a bill related to H-1B and L-1 visa in the US Senate last September and according to available information, it remains at the 'introduced' stage. The H-1B and L-1 Visa Reform Act of 2025 seeks to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to reform the H-1B and L-1 visa programmes with the stated objectives of "curbing fraud, abuse, outsourcing, and displacement of American workers", MoS for External Affairs Kirti Vardhan said.

'SHIPPING INFO PACTS WITH 5 NATIONS'

India has signed White Shipping Information Sharing (WSIE) agreements with five countries in the last five years to enhance maritime domain awareness, the government informed Parliament on Friday. White shipping information refers to the exchange of information on merchant shipping traffic. MoS for External Affairs Kirti Vardhan Singh, in a written response to a query in Lok Sabha, said India has fostered strong bilateral and multilateral partnerships with key partners and like-minded countries.

Form regulatory body on seed prices: House panel

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

A parliamentary panel has recommended the establishment of a regulatory body to fix seed prices in India and emphasised the urgent need for a new Seeds Bill, as the existing law has become outdated. The panel also proposed that the government procure 100% of pulses and oilseeds to achieve self-reliance in these commodities.

The committee noted that the current seed pricing system is arbitrary and disproportionately affects small and marginal farmers, pushing them deeper into debt. A regulatory body could set an upper price ceiling to protect farmers from exploitative pricing by dominant seed companies, it said.

The panel also supported introducing a new Seeds Bill to ensure seed quality, promote innovation, regulate the private sector, and protect farmers. The outdated Seeds Act of 1966 lacks compulsory registration and licensing, making quality control and traceability difficult. India depends on imports of edible oils and pulses, straining foreign exchange reserves and exposing farmers to global market fluctuations. Currently, India imports 56% of edible oil and 2.13 million metric tons of pulses. The panel recommended strengthening the PM-AASHA scheme by procuring 100% of oilseed and pulse production, creating an online portal, a 24-hour farmer helpline, and opening procurement centres in remote areas.

The committee highlighted yield gaps in oilseeds and pulses due to low adoption of high-yielding varieties and low seed replacement rates. It recommended increasing investment in biotechnology, including CRISPR-Cas9 and Marker-Assisted Selection, to develop climate-resilient, high-yielding, and pest-resistant crops.

Finally, it suggested linking the SATHI seed tracking system with central farmer databases, Krishi Mapper, Agri Stack, and subsidy disbursal mechanisms to enhance transparency, reduce leakages, and ensure farmers receive certified seeds and benefits.

The report, titled "Production and Availability of Oilseeds and Pulses in the Country," was presented on March 27 by Sudhakar Singh, chair of the Standing Committee on Agriculture, Animal Husbandry and Food Processing (2025–26).

Panel concerned over depleting groundwater

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

DUE to the escalating groundwater crisis, a Parliamentary Panel has recommended the establishment of a long-term initiative 'Water Efficient Seeds Mission.' The aim is to develop water-efficient seed varieties to promote conservation of groundwater resources.

The Standing Committee on Agriculture, Animal Husbandry, and Food Processing (2025-26), chaired by Charanjit Singh Channi, presented its 34th report on 'Research for Developing Water Efficient Varieties of Seeds to Save Groundwater.'

Additionally, the Panel has proposed the creation of a legal or regulatory framework for a Water Budget-Based Cropping System, and noted that such mechanisms are essential in overexploited water zones.

DGCA tightens VVIP flight rules post Pawar crash, pilots to have last say

S LALITHA @ New Delhi

IN view of the safety lapses following the Baramati plane crash resulting in the death of then Maharashtra Deputy CM Ajit Pawar, the Directorate General of Civil Aviation on Friday issued an order tightening safety norms for non-scheduled flight operators while transporting VVIPs.

Decision making power with pilots, written consent from local authorities where airstrips are located, screening of VVIP baggage and better aircraft have been made mandatory in the aviation regulator's order issued under the Bharatiya Vayuyan Adhiniyam 2024.

In a bid to ensure pilots are not pressured into flying in risky terrains, the order has empowered them to decide on whether to fly when undertaking risky trips. "Flight crew must not be subjected to undue pressure for undertaking a flight which may impact safety of operations," it said. "The planning and conduct of the flight are professional responsibilities that must remain under the sound judgment of the flight crew and the aircraft maintenance engineers.

They should be free from any external pressure or undue influence," the DGCA said.

Last-minute changes in operations must be routed through organisational management and the operating crew should not be directed to carry them out, it said.

To avoid risks related to remote landing sites, the order said operators must now confirm the availability of suitable helipads or airstrips at least 24 hours in advance. "This needs to be backed by written validation from district authorities. Landing permission or NOCs from district authorities will be mandatory," the order said.

No exemption will be given to VVIPs and baggage screening prior to loading has been made mandatory. Calling for strict adherence to weight limits, the DGCA called for load and trim sheets before every flight. Twin-engine aircraft with a minimum of two members is mandatory, the order added.

List expanded, now includes LS Speaker

VVIPs covered under the list now include the Lok Sabha Speaker, Rajya Sabha Deputy Chairperson, Union and state cabinet ministers, CJI, governors, chief ministers, and Z category SPG protectees. No exemption will be given to VVIPs and baggage screening prior to loading is mandatory.

TOURIST DEATH

A 40-year-old Irish tourist who had come to visit Ranthambore National Park died in her hotel, police said on Friday. Mariam Francis had come to Ranthambore with a group of friends.

Bengal party leaders promise to clear pending DA, provide monthly help to women and youth ● Eviction a major poll plank of BJP in Assam

Dole yatra in Bengal arena, BJP manifesto likely today

SUBHENDU MAITI @ Kolkata

THE BJP is set to unveil its election manifesto for West Bengal on March 28 in Kolkata, with Union Home Minister Amit Shah expected to release the document. The announcement comes eight days after Chief Minister and Trinamool Congress supremo Mamata Banerjee released her party's promises on March 20, raising questions over whether the BJP's 'Sankalp Patra' can pose a significant challenge to the ruling party just 26 days ahead of assembly polls.

West Bengal will vote in two phases—April 23 and 29—for 294 constituencies. According to sources in the Bengal BJP, Shah is expected to arrive at Kolkata airport on Friday night and present the manifesto on Saturday, outlining the party's political, economic, and welfare roadmap for the state.

The 'Sankalp Patra' is expected to focus on social welfare schemes, relief for government employees, job creation, industrial investment, women's safety, and law and order. In pre-poll rallies and meetings held even before the Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar announced the poll schedule on March 15, senior Bengal BJP leaders have highlighted three key promises: clearing pending Dearness Allowance arrears within 45 days of forming the government, providing ₹3,000 monthly assistance for women under the Lakshmir Bhandar scheme, and offering ₹3,000 monthly support to unemployed youth through Yuva Sathi.

The manifesto is likely to reflect these priorities, as the BJP central leadership believes that monthly allowances for women and unemployed youths could counter Trinamool's financial support schemes, including its enhanced Lakshmir Bhandar and Yuva Sathi initiatives. On employment and economic revival, the party has promised to fill all vacant government posts through a transparent recruitment process. Analysts note that the BJP's focus on "dole politics" targets women and jobless youths, who have traditionally supported TMC since 2011.

The emphasis on welfare intensified after the Mamata Banerjee government announced a ₹500 hike in Lakshmir Bhandar on February 5, credited to around 2.42 crore beneficiaries the next day. The scheme is believed to have been crucial in retaining women voters' support in the 2021 Assembly elections. Trinamool insiders argue that continued financial support to women and unemployed youth could help the party secure a fourth consecutive term, despite the deletion of around 64 lakh dead, duplicate, or absent voters and the presence of about 60 lakh adjudicated electors in the state.

₹3K monthly support to unemployed youth

Senior Bengal BJP leaders have highlighted three key promises: clearing pending DA arrears within 45 days of forming the govt, providing ₹3,000 monthly assistance for women under the Lakshmir Bhandar scheme and offering ₹3,000 monthly support to unemployed youth.

BJP needs to prove it will be a better choice

Observers say that Bengal's electoral politics remain centered on welfare. "The Trinamool will always have an advantage because it has already been delivering benefits. The BJP's task is to convince voters that it would be a better choice," analyst Biswanath Chakraborty said.

Evicted, erased: Kachutali residents fight for rights ahead of April 9 elections

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Sonapur

A six-km-long paver road from National Highway 27 at Sonapur leads to Kachutali, where a mosque, a crumbling concrete house, and a madrassa stand amid ruins.

These structures are mute witnesses to the violent clashes on September 12, 2024, between alleged encroachers in tribal belts and police personnel. Hundreds of homes, belonging to Bengali-speaking Muslims, locally referred to by the pejorative term "Miyas," were demolished. But authorities spared Kachutali Jamia Masjid and its two other properties.

Some evictees took refuge on the mosque's three-bigha grounds, living in cramped bamboo huts without basic amenities. A well, dug by settlers, is the only source of drinking water. They rely on Digaru River for bathing, washing clothes and utensils. A single makeshift toilet serves women and girls, while men and boys defecate in the open.

The situation is similar in two nearby settlements. Over 2,000 voters live here. Men who once worked in the fields now survive as daily-wage laborers.

A lower primary school in Kachutali was shut down days after the violence, forcing many children to drop out.

With Assam headed to polls on April 9, these evictees feel abandoned—their names have allegedly been removed from the voter list, even though they voted in previous elections. Some youth say they were born in Kachutali. "We ran from pillar to post, meeting officials in Guwahati after our names were deleted. Despite assurances, nothing happened," said Surdot Ali, a middle-aged man.

The eviction drive began on September 9, with authorities flattening houses. Violence erupted three days later when officials resumed evicting those who had reoccupied land.

Jaharat Ali recalled notices giving residents just three days to vacate. "We panicked when two were killed, and several others were taken by the police. Even the ring wells were destroyed," he said.

Akkas Ali, 34, said most evictees originated from Darrang district across the Brahmaputra. "My father relocated here 42 years ago. I was born here. We have documents proving we bought land from locals and paid taxes regularly," he said.

Mahir Haque, 28, fears disfranchisement may lead to deportation. "If you have the right to vote, you are a citizen. We are not Bangladeshis; we are Indian citizens," he said.

A second phase of eviction that month was halted after settlers moved the Gauhati High Court. Tribal belts and blocks in Assam are legally reserved for tribal communities.

Official data shows the Assam government reclaimed 1.5 lakh bighas of forest and government land by evicting encroachers, largely Bengali-speaking Muslims. Over 20 lakh bighas remain under encroachment.

Watch Asiatic lion cub through CCTV live at zoo

An Asiatic lion cub was born at Bhagwan Birsa Biological Park in Ranchi. Officials say visitors can watch the cub through live CCTV footage displayed on screens at the park. Director Jabbar Singh said a pair of Asiatic lions—Abhay (male) and Sabari (female)—were brought from Nandanvan Zoo, Raipur, on June 16, 2025. The pair was introduced on August 12, and Sabari gave birth to the cub on November 28, 2025. About 10 days after the birth, the cub fell critically ill and had to be separated from her mother. She was raised under intensive care at the park's veterinary hospital, and is now kept in a nursery near her mother for monitoring.

437 custodial deaths in state since 2018

According to an affidavit filed in Jharkhand High Court by the Principal Secretary of the Department of Home, Prisons and Disaster Management, the state has recorded 437 deaths in judicial and police custody since 2018. The affidavit further stated that of the 398 deaths occurring within prisons, judicial inquiry could be conducted in 202 cases. Probe has not yet been carried out in 11 cases of these. The court emphasised that the law mandates a magisterial inquiry for every death, disappearance, or alleged sexual assault in custody. The bench observed that absence of inquiries undermines accountability and violates due process.

Villages to get free medicines at clinics

The Jharkhand government has launched a major initiative to address poor medical facilities and shortage of medicines in rural areas. The government has decided to open 745 'Abua dawakhana' (clinics) across all districts. State health minister Irfan Ansari has given his approval to this proposal, which will now be placed before the cabinet during its next meeting. Work on the project is set to commence immediately after receiving approval from the cabinet. Patients visiting these clinics will receive medicines free of cost. Under this initiative, preparations are underway to establish these clinics within the existing health sub-centres.

5 killed as avalanche hits passenger cars at Zoji La

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

At least five people, including two women and a child, were killed and six others injured, one of them critically, after multiple passenger vehicles were struck by a massive snow avalanche at Zoji La on Srinagar-Leh highway on Friday.

A senior police official said multiple passenger vehicles, which were on their way from Srinagar to Kargil, came under a massive snow avalanche at Zoji La at around 2:45 pm. The vehicles were buried under snow and authorities launched a relief and rescue operation to rescue the persons trapped. The rescue teams had to wade through the deep snow and difficult terrain to reach the spot.

The Zoji La witnesses heavy snowfall during winter months and the Srinagar-Leh highway remains closed for traffic.

The rescue teams pulled out six survivors from the snow and also retrieved bodies. The bodies of dead and injured persons were shifted to a hospital in Drass, police said.

Chief Medical Officer, Kargil, Liyaqat Ali Khan told this newspaper that five people have died in the avalanche. Among the dead include two women, two men and a child. The CMO said that six people injured in the avalanche were brought to the hospital in Drass. "One of them was critically injured and was shifted to District Hospital Kargil," he said. The CMO said five other injured, who suffered minor injuries, have been discharged from the hospital.

KBC fame MP govt official held in scam

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

BACK in 2011, Amita Singh Tomar, a revenue department officer from Madhya Pradesh, became widely known after appearing on the quiz show Kaun Banega Crorepati. Sitting on the hot seat before Amitabh Bachchan, she answered questions with confidence and eventually won ₹50 lakh. Her story was seen as inspiring, a government officer achieving recognition through knowledge and calm determination.

Fifteen years later, her name returned to headlines, but in a very different way. Tomar, who had risen to the rank of tehsildar, was arrested in Sheopur district in connection with a major scam involving flood relief funds. The case involved ₹2.56 crore intended for victims of the devastating 2021 floods.

Those floods had severely affected villages in Baroda tehsil. After a survey, 794 families were identified as eligible for financial help. But the money did not reach many of the victims. Investigators found that around 22 patwaris, along with Tomar, had allegedly diverted the funds into 127 bank accounts belonging to more than 85 people who were not flood victims but relatives and acquaintances of the officials.

A probe in 2023 exposed the irregularities, leading to a police case against about 110 accused. Charges included cheating, forgery, criminal breach of trust, and conspiracy, as well as provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act. According to police, Tomar approved payments without proper verification and "actively colluded" in the misuse of public money.

"She colluded with the subordinate staff in siphoning the public money into accounts of ineligible beneficiaries," Sheopur SP Sudhir Agrawal told this newspaper on Friday.

As arrests began, Tomar sought anticipatory bail from higher courts but did not succeed. She then stayed away from duty before being removed from her post in Vijaypur. Soon after, she was arrested from her residence in Gwalior. By then, around 25 accused had been taken into custody.

Tomar had faced controversies earlier as well, including social media remarks and administrative disputes. Her journey from a celebrated quiz show winner to a key accused in a corruption case reflects a troubling turn of events.

What began as a story of achievement has ended, at least for now, in serious allegations and legal consequences.

Social media followers of gangsters under lens

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

Goldy Brar, Jaggu Bhagwanpuria

THE Punjab Police will keep a watch on the youth who follow the social media accounts of gangsters, in a move to prevent them from falling into the trap of the criminals by getting lured by their flashy lifestyles and easy money.

Sources aware of the initiative said the Anti-Gangster Task Force (AGTF) of Punjab Police will identify the youth following the Facebook, instagram, X and other social media accounts of the gangsters and counsel them. "Those who 'like' the posts of the gangsters or share them will be listed. The youth, who have not yet fallen into the anti-social elements' trap but are impressed, will be counselled. District-level counselling centres will be set up to prevent youth from entering the world of crime," a police source said. "Legal action will be taken against those who have already fallen into the gangsters' trap."

A police officer said on condition of anonymity that a recent data revealed at least 70 youth of a sub-division are following the social media accounts of the gangsters.

Highlighting the crackdown on the digital ecosystem of crime, DIG Gurmeet Singh Chauhan said the AGTF is launching a special campaign to monitor mischievous activities on social media. "We have already got 643 pages blocked across social media platforms for glorifying weapons or criminal activities. I appeal to parents to remain vigilant about their children's activities to ensure that they are not misled," he said.

Chauhan sounded a note of caution on anti-social elements staying abroad who lure youth with money to commit crimes. He advised the public against facilitating financial transactions via UPI or other digital sources for unknown persons. He warned against picking or dropping packages from unidentified locations, noting that criminals abroad are using "dead letter boxes" to deliver weapon consignments for illegal activities.

Under 'Gangstran Te Vaar', the anti-gangster helpline, 93946-93946, has seen a good response from the public since its launch on January 21. "A total of 590 inputs have been received on the dedicated helpline. Out of these, 83 were related to drugs, 35 to extortion, 43 regarding gangsters, 86 concerning illegal weapons, 74 related to personal enmity, 13 for robbery or theft, 11 regarding proclaimed offenders (POs) and two related to immigration fraud, while 97 were categorised as others," Chauhan said. "These tips led to the registration of 63 FIRs and the arrest of 26 people, including 21 preventive detentions," the DIG said.

The officer said that the Punjab Police has busted 1,111 modules and arrested 2,868 gangsters since April 2022. Police have recovered from them 2273 weapons and 656 vehicles used in criminal activities.

Craze for easy money and flashy lifestyle

Police will identify the youth following Facebook, instagram, X and other social media accounts of the gangsters and counsel them. The youth get lured by gansters' flashy lifestyles and easy money. "Those who 'like' the posts of the gangsters or share them will be listed," police said.

Married man being in consensual live-in relationship not a crime: HC

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

OBSERVING that it was not an offence if a married man stayed with an adult in a live-in relationship with the consent of the other person, the Allahabad High Court asked the authorities concerned to provide protection to them.

Emphasising that morality and law must be kept separate, the HC's division bench, comprising Justice JJ Munir and Justice Tarun Saxena, stated that social opinions and moral views would not dictate the court's actions when it came to providing protection to citizens' rights. The observation was made by both the judges in an order, dated March 25, 2026, while hearing a petition seeking protection to a live-in couple allegedly facing threats from the woman's family.

As per facts of the case, the woman's family had lodged an FIR claiming that the man, who is first petitioner in the case, is married had lured away the 18-year-old woman, who is second petitioner in the case through blandishment. The family argued that because he was married, living with another woman constituted a crime.

The court, however, rejected this plea and observed, "There is no offence of the kind where a married man, staying with an adult in a live-in relationship, by consent of the other person, can be prosecuted for any offence, whatsoever. Morality and law have to be kept apart. If there is no offence under the law made out, social opinions and morality will not guide the action of the court for protecting the rights of citizens."

The court noted that the woman had submitted an application to the Shahjahanpur SP, stating that she was an adult and was staying with the first petitioner out of her own free will. They also submitted that the girl's parents and family members were averse to the relationship and had threatened her with dire consequences, leading both of them to fear an honour killing. However, the district police chief took no action on the complaint.

Taking a serious note of this, the court reminded the authorities that it was the fundamental duty of the police to protect two adults living together.

West Asia crisis: Market falls after 2 sessions of gain

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

AFTER two sessions of meaningful gains, domestic equity market fell sharply again on Friday due to a surge in crude oil prices amid escalating West Asia tensions.

The benchmark BSE Sensex declined by 1,690.23 points (2.25%) to settle at 73,583.22 on Friday, while the Nifty fell 486.85 points (2.09%) to end at 22,819.60. With this, the two indices closed in the red for the fifth consecutive week. The broader market also exhibited pressure with the Nifty Midcap index declining by 2.23% and the Small cap index falling by around 1.74%.

The market cap of all BSE-listed firms came down from ₹430.53 crore to ₹421.62 lakh crore, making investors poorer by nearly ₹9 lakh crore. Meanwhile, rupee hit a record low beyond ₹94.80 per dollar, shedding 83 paise in one session, its worst fiscal-year drop in over a decade fueled by energy supply fears from the West Asia conflict.

Investors lose ₹9L cr

Market cap of BSE listed firms came down from ₹430.53 crore to ₹421.62 lakh cr, making investors poorer by nearly ₹9 lakh crore

"Indian equities ended lower after a volatile session as rising bond yields coupled with negative cues from western markets and mixed Asian performance kept investors on the edge. Profit booking set in after the recent two-session rally as the rupee fell to an all-time low amid sustained FII selling, while escalating tensions in the Middle East heightened caution among investors ahead of the weekend," said Vinod Nair, head of research, Geojit Investments.

FPIs have withdrawn ₹123,688 crore from the Indian financial market in March till the 25th. On March 27, FII net sales stood at ₹4,084.88 crore.

The market faced selling pressure despite US President Donald Trump announcing that Washington will delay attacks on Iran's energy infrastructure until April 6. However, reports suggest Israel intends to cripple Iran's military-industrial base and there is a possibility of the US sending troops on Iranian soil.

The escalation, in its fourth week, has crippled shipments via the Strait of Hormuz, a chokepoint funnelling about 20% of global oil supply, 40% of India's oil import and a third of the liquefied natural gas trade. This has led to a surge in crude oil and gas prices, with Brent crude prices trading above $110 a barrel on Friday. Higher oil prices are likely to translate into higher inflation in the coming months.

Excise cut: Govt may incur ₹1L cr fiscal loss

Sitharaman says govt will step up non-tax revenue collections to maintain fiscal stability amid surge in crude prices

PUSHPITA DEY @ New Delhi

THE government is likely to incur a net revenue loss of ₹5,500 crore every fortnight following the excise duty cut on petrol and diesel, as per estimates by the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC).

On Friday, the Centre slashed excise duties on petrol and diesel by ₹10 per litre each, bringing them down to ₹3 per litre on petrol and nil on diesel. At the same time, it imposed export duties of ₹21.5 per litre on diesel and ₹29.5 per litre on aviation turbine fuel (ATF) to curb outbound shipments and prioritise domestic supply.

Vivek Chaturvedi, chairman of CBIC, said the excise duty reduction would result in a revenue loss of nearly ₹7,000 crore per fortnight, while export duties on diesel and ATF are expected to generate about ₹1,500 crore. The government will review these duties every 15 days.

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman said the government is "on its toes" to step up non-tax revenue collections to maintain fiscal stability. "Going forward, we will continue to ramp up efforts to mobilise additional non-tax revenues, and the government will remain on its toes to carefully manage the country's fiscal position," she said.

Economists estimate the total annual revenue impact could be up to ₹1 lakh crore. Gaura Sen Gupta, chief economist at IDFC First Bank, said the excise duty cut could lead to a revenue loss of ₹1.8 lakh crore over 12 months, while higher export taxes may yield about ₹80,000 crore, implying a net revenue foregone of nearly ₹1 lakh crore annually.

Economists cautioned that the impact could spill over to the broader economy. After factoring in the excise cuts and windfall taxes, losses of oil marketing companies (OMCs) are expected to moderate to about ₹2.8 lakh crore annually, according to Emkay Global. Even so, part of the burden may eventually be passed on to consumers.

"The burden-sharing will likely cushion consumers to some extent, with OMCs absorbing the first leg, followed by the government. The greater the share of the oil shock absorbed by the authorities or OMCs, the smaller the pass-through to retail CPI inflation," said Madhavi Arora, Chief Economist at Emkay Global.

However, the government has maintained that retail prices of petrol and diesel will remain unchanged for now. According to the finance ministry, the measures are aimed at ensuring oil marketing companies continue procurement smoothly and maintain uninterrupted domestic supply.

INR nears 95, bond yields rise amid inflation fear

BENN KOCHUVEEDAN @ Mumbai

THE rupee on Friday declined close to psychologically sensitive 95 level, closing at 94.82 amid rise in crude oil prices.

The rupee opened at 94.18 or down 23 paise, and breached the 94.5 mark before closing at 94.82, down 86 paise from its previous close, weighed down by elevated oil prices and a stronger greenback amid the rising uncertainties over the Iran war. The rupee had closed at 93.96 against on Wednesday.

On the MCX, rupee, which lost close to 5% since the war began and over 10% this fiscal, crossed 95.09 or 0.89% at 1700 hrs. Rupee has taken less than a week to lose ₹1 in absolute terms — from 93 to 94. Last comparable plunge was in 2011-12 when global risk-off concerns due to worries over Eurozone debt levels and weakness in the country's external sector yanked rupee 14% lower.

A sharp decline in the domestic equity markets and continuing outflow of foreign investors who have pulled out more than ₹1.2 lakh crore in March on the back of another ₹1.4 lakh crore in calendar year 2025, put further pressure on the local unit, said forex traders. Another reason was the continuing strengthening of the dollar, with the dollar index, which gauges the greenback's strength against a basket of six currencies, was trading 0.11% higher at 100.

Brent crude, the global oil benchmark, was trading at $109.8 a barrel, up 0.53% in futures trade. The 10-year benchmark bond yield surged as much as 9 bps to 6.96%, the highest since August 2024, from 6.8750% in the previous trading session on Wednesday. By the looks of it, bond yields may cross the psychological 7% mark soon on inflation fears.

Analysts from SBI to Goldman and Moody's have a short-term target of 96 for rupee if the war lasts another month and the unit crossing the 95 mark is very much possible even in the current fiscal itself.

> If the war worsens further into April, the rupee could go down to 96.50 to 97. For now, support is seen around 94 and then 93.50

Jan Vishwas Bill 2026 introduced in Lok Sabha

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE government on Friday introduced the Jan Vishwas (Amendment of Provisions) Bill, 2026 in the Lok Sabha, proposing wide-ranging changes including decriminalisation of several provisions to simplify India's regulatory framework and reduce compliance burdens. Minister of State for Commerce and Industry

Jitin Prasada introduced the Bill seeking to amend 784 provisions across 79 Central Acts administered by 23 ministries. One of the major amendments include decriminalisation of 717 provisions, aimed at replacing criminal penalties with civil or administrative measures. The government expects this move will remove fear of prosecution for minor and technical violations, building a conducive business environment.

"The Bill seeks to rationalise over 1000 offences, removing outdated and redundant provisions, thereby improving overall regulatory environment. The Bill envisages a shift from criminal penalties for minor, technical, or procedural defaults to civil and administrative enforcement mechanisms," stated a commerce ministry statement.

Centre plans to borrow ₹8.2L cr in H1 of FY27

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE government plans to borrow ₹8.2 lakh crore in the first half of the financial year 2026-27. The total gross market borrowing target for the year was pegged at ₹17.20 lakh crore initially, later it was revised down to ₹16.09 lakh crore after bond switches.

"Of ₹16.09 lakh crore, ₹8.20 lakh crore (51.0%) is planned to be borrowed in H1 through issuance of dated securities, including ₹15,000 crore of Sovereign Green Bonds (SGrBs)," finance ministry said in a release. The borrowing will be carried out via 26 weekly auctions across a wide maturity spectrum ranging from 3-year to 50-year securities. The largest chunk will come from 10-year bonds, which account for 29% of the planned issuance, followed by 5-year (15.4%) and 15-year (14.5%) papers.

To manage its debt profile, the government will use several other tools such as switching and buyback of securities to smoothen redemptions. It will also retain the option to accept an additional Rs 2,000 crore per security through the greenshoe option during auctions. Separately, treasury bill issuances in the first quarter are estimated at ₹24,000 crore weekly, across 91-day, 182-day and 364-day tenors.

Jefferies exits crisis-hit HDFC Bank, trims India weightage

> The weightage of Australia and India will be reduced by 2 percentage points each, while the weighting of Taiwan will be increased by 4 percentage points —Chris Woods, strategist at Jefferies

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

GLOBAL brokerage Jefferies has exited its holdings in HDFC Bank, the second-largest in the stock indices and the largest in Bank Nifty, and has also trimmed its India weightage.

Chris Woods, strategist at Jefferies, has cut exposure to the HDFC Bank stock from three key portfolios: Asia ex-Japan long-only equity portfolio, the global long-only equity portfolio, and the international long-only equity portfolio, ex-US. However, Woods did not explain his reasons for doing so in his latest weekly 'Greed & Fear' report. But the move comes within a week of the bank's part-time chairman Atanu Chakraborty's resignation last week. It is not known how many shares the brokerage had owned in the bank and when did it exactly sold them.

For all the portfolios, the brokerage decided to include an investment in HSBC with a 4% weightage by removing the investment in HDFC Bank. This led to a reduction in weightage for the brokerage's India holdings. Following the abrupt resignation og Chakraborty, shares of the second most valuable company in the country had tanked 7.5% in two sessions. Today the HDFC counter closed more than 3% lower.

The brokerage also noted that some changes will also be made in the Asia Pacific ex-Japan relative-return portfolio. "The weighting of Australia and India will be reduced by 2 percentage points each, while the weighting of Taiwan will be increased by 4 percentage points," said the report.

Tenneco plans to expand R&D facility in Hosur

SANAL SUDEVAN @ Chennai

AS part of its India expansion strategy, Tenneco Clean Air India Ltd, the local arm of US-based Tenneco Inc, is targeting double-digit growth, backed by a $2 million investment in its R&D facility in Hosur and potential acquisitions in the auto components space.

The company is also planning to localise some of its patented technologies—drawn from a global portfolio of over 5,000 patents—by adapting them to suit Indian market requirements. "We are planning a global, state-of-the-art R&D facility here. We want to make India self-sufficient and a hub for technology. We are at a point where we can develop and deploy our patents locally," said Arvind Chandra, CEO and Whole-Time Director.

Tenneco currently operates R&D centres in Hosur and Chakan, employing around 150 engineers. It plans to scale this up to a 200-strong team.

On Thursday, the company launched its flagship product, DaVinci DCx, a shock absorber designed specifically for Indian road conditions, for Mahindra & Mahindra.

"We are receiving queries from other OEMs for this product. To cater to the rising demand, we may need to set up another plant in western or southern India, though nothing has been finalised yet," Chandra said. The supply contract from Mahindra is estimated at about ₹220 crore. The company has already begun construction of a manufacturing facility in Kharkhoda, Haryana, with an investment of ₹71 crore. The plant will cater to northern OEMs, with production expected to begin in Q3 FY27.

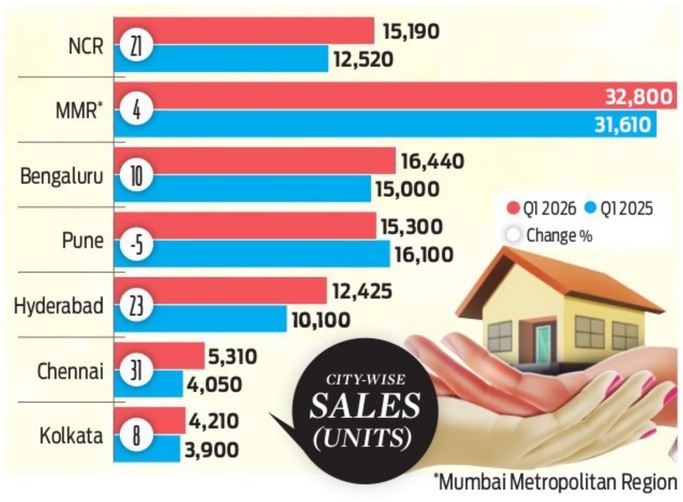
Chandra said the domestic shock absorber market is estimated at about ₹5,000 crore. "We are the largest supplier of suspension and struts to Indian OEMs, with a market share of 52%. We are also the largest supplier of clean air and powertrain solutions, with a market share of over 57%," he added.

The company produces nearly 5 million clean air solutions, 51 million spark plugs, 43 million bearings, and over 21 million struts and shock absorbers annually. Of this, over 7 million suspension units are manufactured at its Hosur facility.

Company targets double-digit growth

The company is targeting for a double-digit growth with $2 million investment in R&D facility in Hosur, a few potential acquisitions in auto components sector, and by bringing some patented products out of its 5,000 patents and tweak it as per the needs of Indian customers

Iran war hits housing demand, sales fall 7% in Q1CY26



*Mumbai Metropolitan Region

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

HIT by the ongoing conflict in West Asia, housing sales in the first quarter (Jan-Mar) of calendar year 2026 fell 7% quarter-on-quarter across top 7 cities to 101,675 units (₹1.51 lakh cr) in contrast to 108,970 units (₹1.60 lakh cr) sold in the preceding fourth quarter (Oct-Dec) of CY 2025, according to property consultant Anarock.

Anuj Puri, chairman, Anarock Group, said while residential segment's long-term fundamentals remain strong, short-term tremors of the Iran War were visible in Q1.

"The 7% dip in sales tracks the war-induced uncertainty, with sentiment and sales clearly affected by surging oil and construction prices - particularly in March. The decline aligns with large numbers of prospective Middle Eastern homebuyers, who invest significantly in Indian real estate, hitting the pause button under the war cloud," added Puri.

Given low housing sales base in the corresponding period last year, Q1 2026 marked a 7% annual rise in sales across the top 7 cities. Back in Q1 2025, 93,280 units worth ₹1.42 Lakh Crore were sold in these cities. Thus, housing sales value is down by 5% QoQ but has risen 6% annually.

City-wise, Mumbai Metropolitan Region (MMR) and Bengaluru accounted for 48% of total sales in this quarter. Interestingly, Chennai recorded the highest (18%) quarterly drop in housing sales, but also saw the highest yearly gain of 31%

Meanwhile, new launches across the top 7 cities saw a limited quarterly growth of 2% in Q1 2026 against the previous quarter, and a 26% yearly rise: from 1,23,835 units in Q4 2025 to 1,26,265 units in Q1 2026 and over 1 lakh units back in Q1 2025.

JAPAN

BOJ RELEASES NEW NATURAL INTEREST RATE ESTIMATE

The Bank of Japan on Friday released an updated estimate on the country's natural rate of interest as part of its efforts to enhance communication as it ends an era of ultra-low rates. The release came amid increased market attention to how close the central bank's short-term policy rate has approached levels deemed neutral to the economy, which is key to the pace and timing of additional hikes. In the updated estimate, Japan's natural rate of interest, also known as the neutral rate that neither cools nor overheats the economy, stood in a range of around -0.9% to +0.5%, the central bank said. The range, which consists of estimates using six models, was largely unchanged from a previous estimate showing Japan's natural rate of interest at -1.0% to +0.5%. The natural rate of interest is defined as the level of the real interest rate that is neutral to economic activity and prices.

THAILAND

FUEL PRICES JUMP UP TO 22%

Thailand witnessed the steepest fuel price increases in decades after the government moved to rein in subsidies strained by surging global oil costs. A routine late night price announcement on March 25 revealed a sharper-than-expected 6 baht (23 Singapore cents) per-litre increase effective on March 26, sending petrol prices up 14-22%. Diesel – the backbone of Thailand's transport, agriculture and industrial sectors – surged 18%, amplifying the shock for households and businesses already facing rising costs. The impact was immediate, with long lines forming at petrol stations overnight as drivers rushed to fill up before the price hike took effect. Concerns over shortages and rising costs had been building for weeks. The increase marks a turning point for Thailand's longstanding fuel-subsidy regime, introduced in the wake of the 1970s oil shocks.

SOUTH KOREA

OECD CUTS 2026 GROWTH FORECAST TO 1.7%

The Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development cut South Korea's 2026 growth forecast to 1.7% from 2.1%, citing economic fallout from rising energy prices and supply disruptions linked to the conflict in West Asia. The OECD released the revised outlook on Thursday in its economic report, which said the conflict has disrupted shipments through the Strait of Hormuz, pushed up energy costs and added uncertainty to global demand. South Korea's downgrade of 0.4 percentage points was one of the largest among Group of 20 economies, according to the report. The OECD kept its 2027 growth forecast for South Korea unchanged at 2.1%. The OECD also raised its forecast for South Korea's inflation this year to 2.7%, up 0.9 percentage points from its previous projection. It said inflation is expected to ease to 2.0% next year as energy price pressures fade.

Two-time Olympic medallist Gurjant retires

India's two-time Olympic medallist Gurjant Singh retired from international hockey after an illustrious career, saying it's the appropriate time to quit after losing his place in the national team due to a back injury last year. Gurjant represented India in 130 matches and also helped the team win a gold medal at the 2023 Asiad in China.

CHINNASWAMY FACES BIGGEST STRESS TEST

As RCB face SRH in opener, focus is more on venue that witnessed a tragedy last year

Virat Kohli during a practice session in Bengaluru on Friday | SHASHIDHAR BYRAPPA

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@ Bengaluru

TO be inside the M Chinnaswamy Stadium 24 hours before the opening day of the 19th edition of the Indian Premier League (IPL) was to witness a group project finally come to fruition. A coat of paint was still wet. The smell of acrylic lingered. Sheets of plywood was being fixed. Some pipes, lying on the ground one minute, were being assembled the next. Brand new logos decorated the walls. The gates were much wider than before. Workers, most of them with some kind of IPL-associated lanyard hanging around their necks, were hurriedly finishing their lunches before scurrying off to hammer another nail somewhere.

But nowhere was this change as pronounced as at the old National Cricket Academy. In it's place lay a transparent green sheet. Roughly the size of half a football field, this was going to be the holding area, where a large number of match-going fans would be ushered in on Saturday and all subsequent match days at this famous, old stadium.

It's why it's hard to talk about the IPL and Saturday's opener — Royal Challengers Bengaluru and Sunrisers Hyderabad — without addressing what's at stake. Sure, there's two points up for grabs. But, in reality, it's a stress test facing the city's biggest mass sporting cathedral. In the immediate aftermath of the stampede during RCB's title celebrations in June 2025, an existential crisis gripped this venue. Eleven people, part of the RCB fabric, wanted to celebrate. They didn't return home that night. Everywhere you looked, there was a reminder about that tragic June 4 evening, including a plaque memorialising the dead right next to the KSCA office.

Never again, the authorities told themselves. It's why the Stadium resembled a group project nearing completion. Santosh Menon, the secretary of the Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA), part of the elected office bearers in December, were handed this crisis. They knew they had zero time to waste if Chinnaswamy had to see cricket in the Summer, a part of the city's identity for almost every year since 2008.

"It's been a challenging two months," Menon tells this daily. With Venkatesh Prasad as president of the state body, they had the buy-in of the government and the fans. But getting the buy-in was just the first step of the process. After formal two-way communications, the association said they would implement all the changes needed to ensure the safety and security of fans in a three-tiered manner.

RCB vs SRH

Phase 1 before the IPL. Phase 2 within a year and phase 3 a long-term project. A lot of the phase-1 based changes pertains to the smooth flow of fans to and from the venue. Gates have been expanded to at least 6m (9m in a lot of places), multiple holding areas have been identified for spectators inside the venue to ensure there is no crowding on the road and Queen's Road has, by and large, been freed.

"New gates have been put," Menon says. "Also, there's gangways for all stands. We have ensured that there will be no overlap, no rushing." The holding areas, Menon says, will also ensure that ticket verification happens inside the Stadium. Typically, on a Bengaluru matchday, Queen's Road sees a lot of fans. Not anymore. "Cubbon Road is broader and there will be seven gates. There are four gates on Link Road and only two on Queen's."

400-450 AI cameras

While all of this was done by KSCA, RCB, for their part, have practically made this venue an AI-first zone. Menon says the franchise has put some 400-450 AI cameras around the Stadium. "We have about 450 AI cameras (encircling the Stadium)," Menon says. The objective behind these cameras is multi-pronged. It will send the organisers instant alerts if there's congestion in an area or if the turnstiles are not working. Because there's facial recognition, it will also keep out the ones you don't want to come, according to Menon. Nothing has been left to chance. They have even redone the lighting around the Stadium. They have also had a couple of mock drills to see if it was foolproof.

Nothing, though, can compare to the real thing. When dusk falls on this city on Saturday, over 30000 fans (the only tickets available for the game are on viagogo and the asking rate ranges from ₹12000 to ₹66000) will breathe as one again. Shouts of 'Are-Cee-Bee', 'Are-Cee-Bee' will bounce off the stands and reverberate. But there will also be a profound sadness, a sadness only time can heal.

PREMIER CONTEST

HOLDERS FACE TWO-TIME CHAMPS AND 2024 FINALISTS. A LOOK AT THE IPL OPENER BETWEEN SUNRISERS HYDERABAD AND ROYAL CHALLENGERS BENGALURU ON SATURDAY...

Questions on the holders' bowlers

Josh Hazlewood is in India but he will take some time to get up to speed. RCB is also without Yash Dayal, who won't be featuring this season. They were two big performers for them last year. How will they cope without them? That seems to be the one big question coming into the game. One alternate is the exciting left-arm seamer Mangesh Yadav. He was bought for ₹5.2 cr at the auction. It's likely he will have to hit the ground running, though.

Will the real Travishek please stand up

Hyderabad have handed the reins of their team to Ishan Kishan, at least on a temporary basis. Kishan will be key for them but he will be hoping for rapid starts from the blade of Travis Head and Abhishek Sharma. They were unbelievable in 2024 but they were found wanting in 2025.

Conditions

The playing surface has a greenish tinge to it but it may well be grass that's rolled in to ensure the pitch stays true & flat.

No opening ceremony

There will be no Opening Ceremony this time as a mark of respect for those who died in the stampede.

SEARCH FOR CHALLENGER BEGINS

WITH BOTH CANDIDATES & WOMEN'S CANDIDATES SET TO BEGIN ON SUNDAY, A LOOK AT THE INDIANS WHO'LL BE IN ACTION...

OPEN R Praggnanandhaa

Qualified as the FIDE Circuit winner last year. After a very good 2025, has had a somewhat more tempered start to this season but that's mainly because he took time out to prepare for this event. At Wijk aan Zee, his biggest competition this year, he managed to win only one game and finished 11th out of 14.

- 1st Rd against Anish Giri with white pieces

Other Candidates

Javokhir Sindarov, Andrey Esipenko, Matthias Bluebaum, Wei Yi, Anish Giri, Fabiano Caruana, Hikaru Nakamura

WOMEN

Divya Deshmukh

The youngest women's Candidate in the field, she advanced to this stage after winning the women's World Cup in thrilling fashion. Her last tournament was at the Prague chess festival where she finished third in the Challengers' section. She has shown she can win on demand and has shown that experience can be overrated.

- 1st Rd against Anna Muzychuk with white pieces

R Vaishali

Got in after emerging winner in the women's Grand Swiss. Has experienced the rigorous grind of this tournament before. Hasn't played a Classical event in 2026 and has not featured in any event in the last 45 days so her form is difficult to analyse. Had a mixed 2025 but will be a threat.

- 1st Rd against Bibisara Assaubayeva with white pieces

Other women's Candidates

Anna Muzychuk, Bibisara Assaubayeva, Aleksandra Goryachkina, Kateryna Lagno, Zhu Jiner, Tan Zhongyi

WHY HAS HUMPY PULLED OUT?

Koneru Humpy, who had originally qualified, pulled out because of the ongoing conflict in West Asia. Geographically, Cyprus is pretty close to Israel. In fact, an RAF air force base in Cyprus was struck on the opening day of the war. But FIDE and the local organisers have said Cyprus is safe to conduct the event.

FORMAT

- Double round robin
- 14 games, seven with white and black
- One point for win, 0.5 for a draw
- Classical time control so 120 minutes for the first 40 moves and 30 additional minutes for the rest of the game. There will also be a 30 second increment per move from the 41st
- The top-ranked player at the top of the leaderboard after 14 games faces the world champion in the title match later this year
- In case of tied score
- If there's a two-way tie, a batch of rapid games
- If more than two players are tied, single round-robin rapid games to identify winner
- If there are more ties, blitz matches will be played

Punjab Kings' Shashank seeks redemption

CHANDRA PRABHU @ Chennai

'MENTAL' is the word Punjab Kings all-rounder Shashank Singh uses to explain his role in the team. He usually bats at number six or seven and while doing so, he not only has to deal with form bowlers but also score quickly. Given his role, Singh had quite a productive season last year where he scored 350 runs, batting down the order, at a strike rate of 153.51.

If going unsold at the 2022 auction was a heartbreak for the Chhattisgarh all-rounder, he suffered a bigger one in 2025 when he couldn't win his team the final and the maiden trophy. Despite scoring an unbeaten 61 off just 30 balls, his team fell short by six runs. In the final over of the match, Singh couldn't score off the first two balls bowled by Josh Hazlewood. With PBKS needing 28 runs off the last four balls, Shashank went on to slam three sixes and a four, but it was too little too late.

Post the final, the 34-year-old missed out on a lot of domestic cricket for his state team due to injuries. Ahead of this season, Singh is raring to go and said that he still feels 'the butterflies' ahead of every game. "Every match is a new one. You remember the good things from the past. But there's a little pressure and when the first match starts, the nerves will calm down," he said during a JioStar interaction on Friday.

Australia great McGrath expects fast bowlers to call the shots in IPL

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

FORMER Australian fast bowling great Glenn McGrath believed that fast bowlers will play a key role in this season of the Indian Premier League which begins on Saturday. The IPL is being held just weeks after India successfully defended their T20 World Cup title in Ahmedabad.

"IPL is a quality tournament and as usual, will be exciting. Although it could be played on surfaces which are batter-friendly, fast bowlers will call the shots. You need them to open the attack with the new ball and then at the death. So I feel every team will have one or two guys who can open and bowl at the death," he told this daily during his visit to the MRF Pace Foundation, where he is the Director of Coaching. McGrath believes that bowlers who missed out on opportunities in the T20 World Cup will be keen to show their abilities. "For guys who did not get an opportunity to play or play enough in the World Cup, they will be looking forward to the IPL, they will be eager to prove a point," he said. Mohammed Siraj, McGrath feels, will be a bowler that will be handy for his side, the Gujarat Titans. "Siraj would be raring to go in the IPL. He is a quality bowler, who likes to be on your face. He is a hard working bowler and should be handy for his side in the IPL. This is one tournament where fast bowlers will get a lot of opportunities. Plus, the impact player rule too will see many fast bowlers grab that spot as teams will go for specialists, rather than all-rounders," he explained.

McGrath felt that overseas bowlers like Lungi Ngidi, Matt Henry, Alzarri Joseph and Trent Boult will be playing key roles for their teams.

ADAP relief for athletics coach Nagapuri

ENS @ Chennai

AFTER a long wait, the Anti-Doping Appeal Panel (ADAP) on Friday lifted the provisional suspension of athletics coach Ramesh Nagapuri. The suspension was imposed on the coach by the National Anti-Doping Agency (NADA) on June 18 last year.

Interestingly, Nagapuri's first request to revoke the suspension was rejected on July 3, 2025. As per the latest ruling, the revocation has been done till the final disposal of the case by the Anti-Doping Disciplinary Panel. There was some difference of opinion between the members of the hearing panel with the majority of the view that the coach had not committed an anti-doping rule violation. Parth Goswami, Nagapuri's lawyer, said his client has always upheld the highest standards of integrity and professionalism. "We have consistently maintained that Mr Ramesh Nagapuri has absolutely no role whatsoever in the present matter. The allegations levelled against him are entirely unfounded," Goswami said.

Bolivia, Jamaica close in on WC after wins

AGENCIES @ Monterrey (Mexico)

BOLIVIA and Jamaica moved to within one win of returning to the World Cup after decades-long absences on Thursday after securing opening victories in FIFA's intercontinental playoff tournament in Mexico.

Bolivia, chasing their first World Cup appearance since the 1994 finals in the United States, came from behind to defeat Suriname 2-1 in Monterrey. The South Americans' victory sends them into a winner-takes-all playoff against Iraq next Tuesday, with the victor advancing to a World Cup group of death alongside France, Norway and Senegal.

Jamaica, who are aiming to qualify for the World Cup for only the second time in history following a lone appearance at the 1998 finals in France, defeated New Caledonia 1-0 in Thursday's other game in Guadalajara. Results: Bolivia 2-1 Suriname; New Caledonia 0-1 Jamaica.

Pragg plotting winning moves

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Bengaluru

AT the fag end of 2024, R Praggnanandhaa, India's great chess hope, leader of the next generation and 'one of Anand's babies', was staring into the middle distance. The light in his eyes had disappeared. The teenager was worried. He was worried about his game and where it was headed. He was worried about why he had seemingly hit a wall. Above all, he was worried because he desperately wanted to be world champion. But, in a cruel twist of fate, he had seen compatriot and Olympiad colleague D Gukesh holding the one trophy he so badly craved.

He let it get to him. That's when there was a conversation with his coach-cum-mentor, RB Ramesh.

"We are all humans, and we are emotional people," Ramesh had said about that particular conversation during the Chennai Grand Masters in August 2025. "So, it will have an impact when one is doing (well), especially when your competitors are doing better. It can affect you. At the same time, it can inspire you, motivate you. You don't want to be left behind."

He had his eureka moment at the end of that conversation with Ramesh. There was a time when it used to affect him 'negatively'. Not anymore. "At some point earlier on," he had said in an interview during the Global Chess League in Mumbai in December 2025. "Now I think I'm mature enough that I can... I see it as an inspiration more than anything else." If his 2024 was a middling year — including his first Candidates where he finished fifth — his 2025, at least the first part, saw a new side to him. A confident, more ambitious Pragg. That change, Pragg said during the GCL, went back to his talk with Ramesh. "Seeing Gukesh become the world champion and Arjun's (Erigaisi) deeds, inspired me... my talk with (Ramesh) sir was about small improvements. Trying to be more ambitious, more confident when I'm playing, trying to aim for tournament victories more than anything else."

Beginning Saturday, the 20-year-old has the chance to begin what he had started in 2024. Win the Candidates and give himself a shot at taking down Gukesh and his world championship later this year in the title match. On the upcoming Candidates itself, he had said: "I'm more experienced and I think I'm stronger than two years ago. I have also won a few top events, I believe I can do it again."

It's true. An outstanding 2025 enabled him to top the FIDE Circuit board; it's how he qualified for the Candidates. Now, the hard bit.

TRUMP DELAYS STRIKE

Israel says it will expand its attacks as Trump grants 10-day pause on energy infra strikes

DUBAI

ISRAEL warned Friday it will expand its attacks on Iran as Tehran kept firing missiles at Israel and Gulf Arab nations. The US military also continued striking Iran, while President Donald Trump delayed his threat to obliterate Iran's energy plants over its effective closure of the Strait of Hormuz.

Israel has moved thousands of troops across the border into Lebanon, where Israeli officials said they want to take control of the entire area south of the Litani River — some 20 miles north of the border. The US military also continued striking Iran, while President Donald Trump delayed his threat to obliterate Iran's energy plants over its effective closure of the Strait of Hormuz. Israel has moved thousands of troops across the border into Lebanon, where Israeli officials said they want to take control of the entire area south of the Litani River — some 20 miles north of the border.

WAR WATCH

Facing a convulsing stock market, Trump on Thursday extended a deadline for reopening the Strait of Hormuz until April 6, saying Iran asked for the grace period and that talks were going "very well," despite the fact Iran continues to publicly insist it is not negotiating with the White House on a 15-point proposal to end the conflict. Over 1,900 killed in Iran, 1,100 in Lebanon; 18 in Israel, plus four Israeli soldiers in Lebanon Thirteen US military members have died, as well as a number of civilians on land and sea in the Gulf region. Millions of people in Lebanon and Iran have been displaced.

Tehran enforces Hormuz tolls

Iran appears to be setting itself up as the gatekeeper for the Strait of Hormuz, the world's most important artery for oil shipments.

The move could cement Tehran's de facto chokehold over the crucial waterway and formalise its ability to keep its own oil flowing to China. Iranian communications to the United Nations maritime authority and the experience of ships transiting the strait suggest the creation of something akin to a "toll booth." Ships must enter Iranian waters and be vetted by Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guards Corps.

At least two ships have paid to pass, while traffic has plunged 90%, driving oil prices up and causing shortages across Asia reliant on Gulf supplies Only about 150 vessels, including tankers and container ships, have transited since March 1, according to Lloyd's List Intelligence shipping information firm. That's a little more than one day's normal traffic before the war. AP

G7 divided on conflict as Don criticises NATO; Rubio pitches strategy to allies

VAUX-DE-CERNAY

GROUP of seven foreign ministers met on Friday in France to discuss the Russia-Ukraine conflict, with deep divisions apparent over the US-Israeli war with Iran, following US President Donald Trump's repeated complaints that America's allies have ignored or rejected requests for help in the military operation and in confronting Iran's retaliatory attacks, including the closure of the Strait of Hormuz to most international shipping.

US Secretary of State Marco Rubio joined his counterparts from the G7 just 24 hours after Trump's latest round of insults lobbed at NATO and as instability in oil markets persisted with the Iran war entering its fourth week along with uncertainty over the status of potential negotiations to end the crisis.

Most of America's closest allies have greeted the Iran war with deep skepticism, sentiments that were on display as the G7 foreign ministers met at a historic 12th-century abbey in Vaux-de-Cernay, outside Paris, even as they urged a diplomatic solution to resolve the situation. As the diplomats gathered, France's Minister of the Armed Forces Catherine Vautrin said the war in the West Asia "is not ours," adding that the French position is strictly defensive.

"The aim is truly this diplomatic approach, which is the only one that can guarantee a return to peace," she said on Europe 1 and CNews. "Many countries are concerned, and it is absolutely essential that we find a solution." British Foreign Secretary Yvette Cooper, meanwhile, said Britain also favored a diplomatic path, acknowledging differences with the United States. AP

China launches 2 probes into US trade restrictions

BEIJING

CHINA launched two investigations into US trade practices on Friday, signaling its resolve to push back against President Donald Trump's tariffs ahead of his visit in May.

The Commerce Ministry said the new probes are a response to two investigations announced by Trump earlier this month against multiple countries, including China.

A ministry statement said the two Chinese investigations were launched to safeguard the interests of relevant Chinese industries and expressed "firm opposition" to the American probes. One will examine US policies that restrict Chinese goods from entering the United States and that limit US export of advanced technology products to China. The other is focused on barriers to Chinese green energy exports.

The probes are expected to take six months and could be extended for another three months if necessary, the ministry said. The Chinese investigations are the latest volley in a long-running trade war and could be bargaining chips to counter any possible new US tariffs. The US Supreme Court struck down some of Trump's earlier tariffs, and he responded by launching what are known as Section 301 trade investigations.

One of those investigations is examining allegations of excess industrial capacity — which can drive up exports — and government subsidies that could give companies in China and elsewhere an unfair advantage over US competitors. AP

Balendra Shah takes the oath of office at a function in Kathmandu, Nepal | AP

Nepal's youngest PM Balen revamps cabinet, merges key ministries

KATHMANDU

NEPAL's youngest prime minister took the oath of office on Friday after his party won a landslide victory in elections earlier this month, and following a youth-led uprising that toppled the government in September. He restructured the cabinet and merged various ministries to simplify government operations and improve coordination.

Popularly known as 'Balen', Shah himself retained the Defence and Industry, and Commerce portfolios, while the remaining 14 ministers took their oath at the special ceremony held at the official residence of the President, Shital Niwas.

In the order of hierarchy, Minister for Finance Dr Swarnim Wagle holds the second spot, while Minister for Home Affairs, Sudan Gurung, ranks third, according to the President's Office.

The Youth and Sports Ministry was merged with the Ministry of Education, Science, and Technology, with Sasmita Pokharel heading the office.

The Drinking Water Ministry was merged with the Ministry of Health and Population, led by Nisha Mehta. While the Ministry of Land Management, Cooperatives, and Poverty Alleviation was integrated with the Ministry of Federal Affairs and General Administration, led by Pratibha Rawal. The Ministry of Forest and Environment was abolished and merged with the Ministry of Agriculture, headed by Gita Chaudhary. The Constitution caps the Council of Ministers at 25 under Article 76. PTI

DAY'S DIARY

Beatles, waxed

The Beatles were immortalised in wax on this day in 1964 at the famous Madame Tussauds Museum in London

OUT OF THE MUSEUM

Almost exactly three years later, the four Beatles figures were loaned out for use during the photo shoot of the band's album Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band

WORK IN PROGRESS

Due to the band's constantly changing look in the 1960s, Madame Tussauds reworked the figures multiple times to keep them accurate

SIGNIFICANCE

This inclusion reflected a major cultural shift, as a popular music act was recognised alongside traditional figures like royalty and political leaders

Ahead of this IPL season's first match between Royal Challengers Bengaluru and Sunrisers Hyderabad on Saturday, Devdutt Padikkal dropped into his alma mater St. Joseph's Boys' High School, along with his friends. Mentors go down memory lane about the 'timid' boy whose batting has been wowing crowds

CLASS APART

MAHIMA NAGARAJU

ROYAL Challengers Bengaluru star batsman and Bengaluru boy Devdutt Padikkal paid an impromptu visit to his alma mater, St. Joseph's Boys High School (SJBHS), on a recent Saturday, reliving those three years (2013-16) of walking down corridors and the sports field with his childhood friends again. "It was a surprise! We're always happy to have students of his calibre return, especially since he's a model to emulate for our youngsters," says Principal Fr. Norwin Pereira.

Back in 2015, when cricketer Rahul Dravid inaugurated the SJBHS indoor sports facility, a wide-eyed 15-year-old Padikkal, then the captain of the school cricket team, was chosen to present the senior player a memento. Today, seeing the 25-year-old as the Karnataka Ranji team captain and star batsman for RCB is a full circle moment for both players and their former history teacher Gowri Mirlay-Achanta. She recalls,"Seeing Devdutt's excitement, I thought to myself that one day he will also be in that chair receiving something big. I'm sure he still has those pictures, him looking at Dravid in awe (in pic)." Having taught the school's breakout cricketers over her 40 years there, she notes one quality in common, saying, "Teenagers are of an age where they are distracted but these students were incredibly focussed and hard working."

A fateful test

Padikkal's high school coach recalls the fateful test that got Padikkal, then an Army Public School student, a transfer to SJBHS in Class 8. Padikkal's parents were determined to give their son the best chance. "After a week of them requesting me during practice at the grounds, we brought him in to play for one hour. He played wonderfully and it was in this match that the other cricket team members mentioned that this was the boy who had scored a half-century in the last inter-school match they had played and given them tough competition," recalls coach Mehboob Pasha. When the time for the first match came, a timid Padikkal was the only one who agreed to open. "I asked all the boys 'who will open?' but none of them wanted to. And when I asked this new boy on the team, he said in a soft voice 'Yes sir, I will' – he went on to score a century in that match," smiles Pasha.

The rivalry between Josephites and Cottonians is legendary – probably as old as the schools themselves. Padikkal's Class 8 biology teacher, Lisamma Joseph, recalls with a laugh, "We felt we should wear helmets to go see those matches! When Devdutt came in, with his height, we knew he would hit sixes that would go flying over the boundary like no other player." Padikkal captained his team across the three years he was at Joseph's to victories in KSCA's U-14 and U-16 leagues.

But who was the boy behind the cricket prodigy? The picture his teachers paint is of a timid boy as Padikkal's 10th standard class teacher, Shantha Kumar, notes, "He had few friends and was completely focussed on academics." Hindi teacher Jennifer Gonsalves agrees, adding, "He was not regular to school because practice took up so much time. But the discipline in his sport made everything else fall in place." Biology teacher Bindu Thomas agrees, "Even if students who attended class regularly hadn't submitted their records, he would have submitted it."

This doesn't mean that Padikkal was a loner though, forming a core group of friends in his three years at SJBHS that he still keeps in touch with. When asked about his peers' reactions to Padikkal's growing success while still in school, Mirlay-Achanta shares, "It's these friendships that keep the ones who do spectacularly in life, grounded."

With the IPL game starting today, his teachers are excited to see Padikkal in action, with his 8th standard class teacher Aruna B echoing what each expressed, "Even at that young age, he showed remarkable passion, we hope he continues to have a bright future."

'While recording this song, I wasn't in the best space'

Singer Shahzad Ali, who frequents Bengaluru, on bringing depth to Ranveer Singh-starrer Dhurandhar

TEJAL SINHA

AS Dhurandhar and Dhurandhar: The Revenge continue to captivate audiences, it is not just the visuals but its music that lingers long after. At the heart of this emotional resonance is the voice of Shahzad Ali, whose songs – ranging from the searing intensity of Ishq Jalakar – Karvaan to the haunting stillness of Destiny – Mann Atkeya – have struck a powerful chord. Now closely associated with the on-screen energy of Ranveer Singh, the singer reflects on the overwhelming response.

"The love for Ishq Jalakar – Karvaan and Destiny – Mann Atkeya is overwhelming." That emotional depth is evident in Destiny – Mann Atkeya, a track that lingers on. "We wanted to create something that connects deeply with the audience," he shares.

Interestingly, the emotion wasn't just performed, it was lived. "While recording this song, I wasn't in the best space. I was low on energy. I was having my roza. But Aditya sir really pushed me," he recalls. Over time, Ali has become a recurring voice for Singh in the Dhurandhar universe, a collaboration he deeply values. "Ranveer has been great to work with. He is so energetic. He told me that whenever he takes an ice bath, he listens to Ishq Jalakar. That means a lot," he recounts.

While many might assume pressure comes with such association, Ali sees it differently. He says, "It's not pressure, but yes, there is a responsibility to choose the kind of songs I sing and live up to the love of audience."

Moving between contrasting emotional landscapes – from the intensity of Ishq Jalakar – Karvaan to the stillness of Destiny – Mann Atkeya – is something he considers intrinsic to his craft. "As an artiste, you have to mould yourself based on the emotion of the song. Each song demands differently," he explains.

Despite the success, Ali remains grounded. He notes, "At this point, I've learned to stay in control of my emotions." His journey has been built on years of persistence. "I've been working with Shashwat sir for quite some time. He has always believed in me," he shares, referring to his collaborations on projects like Article 370 and Ulajh.

A still from Dhurandhar

Recalling the moment Dhurandhar came his way, he says, "He called me and asked me to come to the studio. Later, I realised we were recording at Aditya Dhar's place." The process wasn't entirely smooth. "There was something unusual with my voice that day, so I rested and we completed the recording the next day," he recounts.

For Ali, such moments are part of a larger creative journey. "Thoughtful work takes time," he says simply.

Looking back at his early days, Ali chooses to see them not as struggles, but as lessons. "Every phase has taught me something. I never see it as a struggle."

This phase of success was made even more special by a personal milestone – the birth of his daughter when Dhurandhar was about to be released. He says, "Even before she was born, I always said I wanted a daughter. I believe daughters bring a different kind of blessing."

WHY LATE-NIGHT SNACKING LEAVES YOU HUNGRIER

Late-night snacking feels harmless. After a long day, it is easy to reach for chips, sweets or something salty. But this habit does more than just add those extra calories. It can actually make you feel hungrier the next day.

WHAT HAPPENS IN YOUR BODY:

- When you eat late at night, your body's hunger hormones get disturbed. Two key hormones control appetite, ghrelin and leptin. Ghrelin signals hunger, while leptin tells your body you are full. Late-night eating disrupts this balance, which makes you feel more hungry the next morning.
- It also affects blood sugar levels. Sugary or processed snacks cause a quick spike, followed by a sharp drop. This leads to cravings and increased hunger the next day.

IMPACT ON SLEEP AND METABOLISM:

- Eating late can disturb your sleep. Your body stays busy digesting food instead of resting. Poor sleep further increases hunger and cravings the next day.
- At night, your metabolism slows down. This means the body does not burn calories efficiently. Extra calories are more likely to get stored as fat instead of being used for energy.

WHY YOU FEEL HUNGRIER:

The next day, your body reacts to this imbalance. You may notice:

- Strong sugar cravings
- Increased appetite
- Low energy levels

This often leads to overeating, creating a cycle that is hard to break.

HOW TO BREAK THE HABIT?

Simple changes can help:

- Eat meals at regular times
- Include protein and fibre in your dinner
- Stay hydrated
- Avoid keeping junk food within easy reach
- Get 7 to 8 hours of sleep

If you feel hungry at night, pause and check if it is real hunger or just a habit. Small changes in timing and food choices can make a big difference.

I HOPE TO MARK MY SILVER SCREEN DEBUT IN 2026: JYESTAVARDHAN

Jyestavardhan

The young talent, grandson of superstar Vishnuvardhan, who steps in with legacy, patience, and a long game in mind, says he doesn't want to be restricted to a particular genre

A SHARADHAA

With a legacy that reads like a chapter out of Kannada cinema's golden history, Jyestavardhan steps into the spotlight carrying both curiosity and quiet preparation. The grandson of Dr Vishnuvardhan and Bharathi, and son of popular actor Aniruddha Jatkar, he is aware of the attention that follows his every move, but chooses to receive it with patience rather than haste.

Having faced the camera as a child artist in Rajahamsa, Jyestavardhan did not rush into a full-fledged acting career. Instead, he spent almost a decade learning dance alongside the craft, training with Adi Shakti Theatre, attending workshops at Ranga Shankara, and working under Gowri Dattu, while also exploring performance techniques. "I didn't want to jump in without understanding the process. I wanted to be ready, not just visible."

Growing up in a home where cinema is part of everyday conversation has shaped his perspective. "Whatever I choose to do in cinema, my family has always been supportive. The one thing they've told me is simple: be sincere to the silver screen. Hard work counts, and it always pays off."

Interestingly, acting was not his only calling. "I've always been interested in all aspects of cinema, writing, cinematography, everything," he says, adding, "It really struck me in high school that this is where I belong." As he pursues a Master's degree in publication and advertising, he is actively listening to scripts, hoping to lock in a debut project in 2026. "We're waiting for that one story which has everything," he adds.

Ask him about influences, and Jyestavardhan's answer is both personal and wide-ranging. "I try to watch one film a day and learn something from it," he says. "Of course, my grandpa's Apthamitra, my grandmom's Bangarada Manushya, and my father's Neenello Naanalle have been my favourites." At the same time, he admires actors like Yash, Suriya, Ranbir Kapoor, and Ranveer Singh for their range.

For his debut, he is clear about one thing: "I don't want to be boxed into a genre. The first film should connect with everyone." In a household where film discussions never end, Jyestavardhan seems to have already begun his real education. "While everyone says 'study', at home, I've been told to watch films, and they share their opinions. That's been my first classroom," he signs off.

I didn't want to jump in without understanding the process. I wanted to be ready, not just visible – Jyestavardhan, actor

Darling Krishna scores a hat-trick with Love Mocktail 3, moves on to the next script

CE FEATURES

Darling Krishna has pulled off a hat-trick with Love Mocktail 3, setting another solid step in his box office journey. More than just a sequel, the film's performance points to something more telling: audiences remain connected to the emotional, familiar world the franchise has built over the years.

The timing makes this even more interesting. The film, released alongside big titles like Dhurandhar 2: The Revenge and Ustaad Bhagat Singh, but still found its own space. According to the team, it recovered its costs on day one, with over 50 shows running house full, and has continued its run into a strong second week. Krishna believes the film will gross over ₹10 crore in the next few days.

Looking back, Krishna says the clash with bigger films was never about numbers. For him, just holding its ground in a crowded market feels like a win. That thought mirrors the journey of the franchise. When Love Mocktail launched in 2020, it gained traction slowly through word of mouth. Love Mocktail 2 treaded a similar path, showing that consistency matters more than hype. The third part stays in that space, bringing family audiences back to theatres.

In a conversation with Cinema Express, Krishna called the third instalment, Love Mocktail 3, his biggest success so far. He pointed out that despite the controversies, people still came to watch the film. He also added that this part touches a different emotional note compared to the earlier films.

On a personal note, Krishna said the negativity around the film disturbed him. Instead of sitting with it, he chose to channel that energy into work. Along with Milana Nagaraj, he has already started working on their next project. He describes the process as instinctive and almost therapeutic, adding that writing helped him deal with the frustration and focus on what he wants to create next.

Rob Lowe joins Cameron Diaz's film

CE FEATURES

After Judith Light, Rob Lowe is the latest to join the cast of Stephen Merchant and Cameron Diaz's upcoming rom-com for Amazon MGM Studios. The yet-to-be-titled film will see Merchant star and direct from a screenplay he co-wrote with John Butler. They join the previously announced cast members Jake Lacy, Josh Segarra, Sherry Cola, Fabrizio Guido, Lisa Gilroy, Myra Lucretia Taylor, and Dustin Ybarra.

According to the makers, the film centres on a career-obsessed British man (Merchant) working at a luxury New York hotel who requires a spouse to maintain appearances. He enters a convenient arrangement with a cash-strapped stand-up comedian (Diaz) seeking health insurance. What begins as a practical agreement gradually evolves into an unforeseen romantic connection. The film is produced by Lee Eisenberg and Merchant, alongside Point Grey Pictures' Seth Rogen, Evan Goldberg, James Weaver, and Josh Fagen.

RATING 2/5

YAVA MOHANA MURALI KAREYITU

Direction: Vishwas Krishna

Cast: Prakruthi Sharan, Madhava H, Swapna Shettigar, Patel Varun Raju, Swapna Shettigar and Shashidhar Bhat

Fate hangs quietly over Yava Mohana Murali Kareyitu, guiding its characters. The film remains in this meditative space, paying attention to small, lived-in moments rather than dramatic turns. Dogs are not just pets but part of the family in several households. They watch, absorb, and stay, without judgment. Rocky, the Labrador, emerges as the film's most captivating presence. While the people around him seem caught in doubt and hesitation, Rocky moves with instinct and certainty. He doesn't need words; his presence alone carries meaning, often saying more than the film's dialogue.

Director Vishwas Krishna builds the film as a quiet emotional drama with a hint of mystery. The storytelling is nonlinear, drifting through memories, unfinished thoughts, and feelings that refuse to settle. A father's kindness lingers in recollection, objects carry traces of the past, and certain emotions remain unresolved. While this approach adds a personal touch, it also makes the narrative feel uneven in places.

Mohan (Madhav H) runs a mill, while his wife Sindhu (Swapna Shettigar), a doctor, holds the family together. At the centre of their world is their nine-year-old daughter, Prakruthi (Prakruthi Sharan), whose congenital condition has restricted her to a wheelchair since birth. Her bond with their dog Rocky brings the film its most tender moments. Around him, her world feels lighter and less confined. Her reality is filled with an inescapable pain, but she lives through it with a quiet resilience.

Their steady, close-knit life—built on routine and small comforts—is disrupted by the arrival of Murali (Patel Varun Raju), a former convict. His presence introduces unease, and Rocky is the first to sense it. As the dog grows increasingly wary, the narrative moves through a series of emotional turns, eventually leading to a moment of sacrifice that underlines the film's ideas of loyalty and redemption. One of the more interesting threads in the film is that the idea of guilt is not peculiar to humans. When Rocky is placed in such a situation, the film briefly taps into something moving, which doesn't leave a deeper impact due to the film dealing with it in broad strokes.

Supporting characters like Shambhavi and her sister Sharadha leave little to no impression on the narrative. Murali's arrival in the latter half shifts the tone, suggesting a deeper link to Mohan's life. Both seem shaped by similar circumstances, yet their choices set them apart. Their interactions carry a tacit tension, hinting at a connection the film only partly explores.

The Malenadu backdrop adds to the film's mood. The mist, soft rain, and dense greenery give it a lived-in, almost tactile quality. Nature seems to echo what the characters hold back, filling in the emotional gaps left by the writing. There is honesty in what the film is trying to say, and a few moments stay with you. At the same time, it feels slightly restrained, as if unwilling to push its ideas further. The elements are all there, but they don't fully align. What stays in the end is Rocky, not just as a character, but as a presence. In a film filled with confused people, he is the only one with clarity.
